Hi friends, in July 2019, I began brainstorming a way to combine my love for all things weddings with my talents and modern aesthetic. The Ohio Wedding Collective was conceived and developed. It is almost unimaginable that we launched this project in the moments before Covid made its ways into our new normal. Thank you to all the vendors, small businesses owners, who have believed in my vision and jumped on board. We are excited for our expansion into Kentucky and cannot wait to share in the joy of all things weddings with you all.

Our Mission: To curate love stories that authentically inspire modern couples, crafted by local creatives who pour their love into their work. The Ohio and Kentucky Wedding Collectives will strive to educate and celebrate the wedding creative.

xoxo
