About Jesse Lingaard

For me, applying robust Microsoft technology solutions to solve complex business problems is the name of the game.

I'm a highly accomplished and proficient solutions architect focusing on integrating software, including Microsoft. I'm a designer, a developer, an expert integrator and a strategist who has worked on a diverse set of enterprise solutions. My client list includes leaders of small startups, executives of corporations and many in between – each solution transforming commercial outcomes.

I wear many hats in my career, and I know what needs to happen to implement a large-scale IT shift for the best results.

I possess deep knowledge and skills in:

- Web
- eCommerce
- integration solutions
- Microsoft technologies including
 - oWindows Azure
 - oWindows Communication Foundation
 - oSharePoint
 - oBizTalk Health Review and Health Monitoring
 - oWindows Workflow

Achievements include being engaged by Microsoft to take part in BizTalk 2006 R2 launch, creating BizTalk Webcasts hosted on MSDN (<http://tinyurl.com/3v6gvf8>), delivery of SharePoint training in Singapore and Australia and deployment of a Windows Azure solution that decreased running costs by 50%
