

7 Key Decisions

to make before moving to Italy

If you have ever thoughtI would love to move to Italy but I have no idea where to begin... start here!

LET'S FIGURE OUT WHERE YOU ARE IN THE PROCESS

This is me

I am still just thinking about moving to Italy.

This is me

I have decided that I will move to Italy but not sure when or how.

This is me

My bags are packed and I'm ready to roll!

The 7 Key Decisions You Must Make

WHY

WHEN

WHERE

WHAT

BUDGET

TAX

ROUTE

7 Key Decisions

planning guide

Decision One:

What is your Why?

This is the deep motivating reason why you want move to Italy and will act as your foundation and support

Decision Two:

When will you move?

Consider your current situation, and pick a date when you will make the move. Write it down. Make it real.

7 Key Decisions

planning guide

Decision Three:

Where will you move?

If you already know the location, write it down. If you are unsure try to narrow down your choice to three different areas.

Decision Four:

Will you rent or buy?

Decided which will fit with your situation, goals and budget and consider how you will acquire your residential property.

Decision Five:

How will you pay for your new life?

Think about all of the sources of income that you can use to support your new life in Italy. Consider taxes and currency exchange.

7 Key Decisions

planning guide

Decision Six:

Do you know your tax liability?

Decide on how you will transfer your money or assets to Italy and what your tax liabilities will be. Do not leave this to the end.

Decision Seven:

What is your legal route to Italy?

Decide on how you will legally move to Italy. Will you need a Visa, apply for Citizenship and how will this impact your time line.

