LIBRARY CARD — VIP WRITING DAY DETAILS

The magazine on the right is the December issue of Vogue, featuring a woman in a blue outfit. The person is wearing a white long-sleeved shirt and blue jeans. “Ugh, I wish someone else could just freaking do this for me.”

— YOU, EVERY TIME YOU SIT DOWN TO WRITE
OR PLAN CONTENT FOR YOUR BUSINESS.

T H E S O L U T I O N

What's the deal?

You, me, and your to-do list. Spend a day at the BTL Library and check off all your content writing tasks in just eight hours or less!

Think about the last time you sat down to write a blog post, or an email, or a caption, or even your tagline. How long did it take you?

If you found yourself agonizing over what to write, or second-guessing whether or not it was good enough, or worrying about whether your ideal clients were going to relate to it, then YOU are who I created the BTL Library Card for.

As a business owner, time is the most important resource you have. So why spend precious hours stressing over writing your own copy and content, when you could hand it over to a professional and have all of it done for you in a matter of hours?!

“I had a wish list a mile long that kept getting stalled because I spend hours (or days) staring at a blank screen. Sara was able to get me over that hurdle and make progress on some things I've wanted to get done for a long time — and now finally can! Sara was extremely communicative throughout our day together and produced awesome work.”

How does it work?

1) You'll inquire about booking your day at the BTL Library, and tell me a bit about what you hope to accomplish.

2) We'll have a discovery call to chat about the specifics of the tasks on your copy to-do list, and what your goals are. Then, we'll make a game plan.

3) You'll secure your spot with a 50% deposit and a signed contract. Next, I'll send a personalized questionnaire your way, so you can give me all the deets about your brand and the projects you'd like me to complete.

4) The night before, you'll receive an email from me outlining the schedule of our day together (and there may or may not be a special surprise...).

5) Our day will begin with a quick kickoff call to chat about your projects, and then I'll get straight to work!

6) You'll receive your deliverables as I finish them, and we'll spend the day chatting on Slack and hopping on and off of review calls as needed. Some people like to chat all day, and some prefer to simply have the kickoff call and a short review – how much we communicate is totally up to you!

“This was the best investment I've made in a long time! Sara is excellent to work with, and the hands-off experience was great for me, because words don't come so easily lately! I now have SO much content for the next few months. I cannot wait to work with her again!”

Frequently Asked Questions

This all sounds great, but... how much is it?!

Full day passes to the BTL Library start at $2000. However, if you're an email list subscriber of mine, you automatically receive $100 off.

What can you REALLY accomplish in a day?

A lot more than you'd think. Because you'll have filled out a questionnaire prior to our day together, I'm able to do all of the necessary research before getting started the morning of, so I can ensure that I know everything I need to know in order to be able to hit the ground running.

We'll also chat about the specifics of what you'd like to get done on our discovery call, and make a decision about what's realistic to complete, so you'll know exactly how much I'll be writing. (Hint: It's a lot.)

I'm hoping to work on a website copy project with you. Is this something I can use my BTL Library Card for?

Sorry, friend — website copy, brand messaging, and launch projects require a bit more time, so they're not included in the BTL Library's offerings. However, we can work on other copy projects in the same copy/launch family, like web copy audits, email sequences, mid-length sales pages, tagline / mission development, and so on!
