Cheryl did an amazing job. She was able to identify my problem spots and take care of them. Overall, Nurture Spa was disappointing. First of all the room was too warm. Cheryl apologized many times for this but it was uncomfortable. Second, I had a $20 promotion from the spa but I wasn't allowed to use it. Some bs that since my wife booked the appointment and they had to 'shift' it from her account to mine they couldn't apply the discount. They did say the credit would stay on my wife's account indefinitely. Finally, I notice I was billed for my services a day before it took place-very shady. Between that and not crediting me the discount I sense the spa is in financial trouble and will do everything to keep as much money as they can. We've always have had a great experience at Nurture but it didn't live up to past experiences. I'm open about my feedback and this is the same I'll share on yelp and google.

We had the most relaxing therapeutic pedicure, our feet feel renewed. The pedicure area is calm and cozy overlooking the town however, we wish there was a shade to block the sun from heating us up we became so sweaty and uncomfortable within minutes. The natural light provides great scenery just wish there was a shade to block the intense heat. The technicians were informative and exceptionally pleasant and professional. I highly recommend Kim & Jill for your service.

A birthday visit- Facial with Olivia was amazing. Very relaxing and informative. Great technique. Spa pedicure was disappointing. The technician was very nice but the service area and pedicure fell short of what one would expect in a spa setting. Chairs are uncomfortable with no headrest. A water basin is toted in for your foot soak and cools quite quickly. But, the least desirable aspect is the very short foot/leg massage. It was 3 min. I would return, just not for the nail services.

The front desk staff was cheerful and accommodating. All lounge areas are comfortable, nicely decorated, and clean. My treatment was relaxing and relieved tension. The area to wash up in after treatment was clean and tranquil. I went with friends and we hung out for quite some time after our services and never felt rushed. The complimentary parking at The Logan Inn was an added bonus as parking in New Hope can be difficult. I highly recommend Nurture Spa in New Hope.

My signature pedicure service was good, however I thought for the price that the massage portion would have been much longer and more intense. Honestly, the pedicure itself was not any different than a pedicure I get from my local Asian nail spa at less than half the price. The atmosphere is the only difference I could find. I don't think I would get this service again. My massage with Derbe was very good. He worked on me while giving me tips on how to stretch certain muscles to help relieve tension which was really helpful. I wish he could have spent a little more time on my legs, neck/face, but he spent time on my shoulders and arms which also really needed attention. Very knowledgeable and friendly. Great atmosphere too. Would definitely ask for Derbe next time. Lastly-you need to provide larger robes for those customers who need more room. That was a problem for me as I had to carry around a towel in front of me so as not to show the spa areas that nobody needs to see.

Amazing!!! I hosted my mothers 70th birthday this past Sunday, we were 10 women and had a brunch catered to Nurture Spa. I do not think I have the words of gratitude I have for this amazing experience. From the start of planning to the minute walked out of the spa, now all feeling relaxed and polished was amazing. The staff, so friendly, warm, welcoming, organized, the list goes on and on. The technicians, friendly, welcoming, and extremely knowledgeable. We wanted to take them all home with us! The decor, so beautiful. elegant feel like you are sitting in a magazine. You made our experience one to remember, and you made my mom (and all of us) feel like a million bucks. Thank you from the bottom of my heart! Alexandra Rochford NYC

I had the most relaxing experience at Nurture Spa. The customized facial I had with Stephanie was exactly what my face needed. She was friendly, professional, and gave me an education about my skin like I never have had before. I took her recommendation on some products and can't wait to see how my skin will change for the better. I will 100% be returning.

I received the massage as an anniversary gift from my wife. The environment is very calming and relaxing, the team is also very polite and have a calming attitude even reflective in their tone of voice. It did remind me of experiences in the four seasons and their employee motto "ladies and gentlemen receiving ladies and gentlemen" The massage was very well done and I left without pain, which is usually a constant due to my 2 herniated disks. The only potential improvement would have more than one steam shower or possibly sauna concluding the experience. Overall very enjoyable experience!

What a wonderful experience @ the Nurture Spa. Went w/my friend and we each had the 75 minute hot stone massage on Oct 26, 2019. Olivia did mine and she was friendly, professional and it was one of the best massages I've ever had. The spa was clean and relaxing. I've been to many spas in various states and have to say, this was one of the best ones. You were made to feel welcome and no attitudes either I highly recommend this spa and will for sure go there again for another spa treatment when I'm back in New Hope in 2020. Also, the reception staff were super friendly and helpful, a big thank you goes out to Chris for being so helpful with scheduling our appointments and answering questions about the area. Thank you! I booked an eyebrow/ lash tint for the first time. I arrived early and they took me right away - the technician, Nicole, was awesome - she asked about my color and shape - what I like in general. Usually when I get it done in NYC the threading/waxing hurts and my eyes sting from the tint - but I felt no pain at Nurture. The whole process was soothing and I walked out looking great! I love the shape of my brows and the color of both my brows and lashes.

Very lovely environment. The sweet almond oil spray used on the nails is so luxurious that my hands and feet still have a healthy shine and softness days later. My nail technician took a lot of care to apply the polish so neatly and not overly thick which I really dislike. Definitely coming back when in the area.

I planned my Mom's 80th birthday spa day from out of state. Holly and the entire staff exceeded my expectations. The spa was immaculate and truly lovely. The entire staff was incredibly accommodating and absolutely wonderful. We did massages, facials, manicures and pedicures. I would highly, highly, highly recommend this spa. Top notch all the way. Can't wait to come back and enjoy the services again.

I recently went to Nurture Spa as a part of my bachelorette weekend with my bridal party. The entire experience was so relaxing and enjoyable. The staff worked with my Maid of Honor to coordinate the timing and services for our group. We were all encouraged to change in robes if desired, make use of the steam room and the locker room (which has access to any amenities one might desire), have tea or coffee, etc. Our group got massages and manicures and everyone had glowing reviews of their services. I would highly recommend Nurture Spa for anyone looking for a luxurious and relaxing experience!

Spa atmosphere is beautiful! The space is really inviting and comfortable. I had a massage and a pedicure. The massage was lovely, but my arms were totally ignored and legs were minimally massaged. While the massage of my torso was very good, I've never had my limbs all but ignored before. I do enjoy when my arms, legs, hands and feet are also massaged. Pedicure is by a large set of windows, overlooking the canal, and the view is just as pretty as a picture and rejuvenating. The pedicure was very good, but the pedicure chairs aren't particularly relaxing. After having the massage, I felt as though a more comfortable chair would have kept me in a relaxed state instead of sitting somewhat uncomfortably for an hour. I should have had the pedicure first, allowed enough time for the polish to dry, and then had the massage. The veranda was a relaxing end to my spa experience. The chaise lounges are comfortable, and the veranda was very nice.

No one even offered us a cup of tea while we waited for our service. Also I was trying to arrange a group of neighbors to come for a spa day, I out in a call 3 times and no one returned my call so we booked elsewhere. Nurture is attractive, uncluttered, serene. It's friendly. And very clean. I'm a 64-year-old man. My masseur was Derbe. He listened to me when I described the back trouble I was having, and then did an amazing job of identifying some problem areas and addressing them. He seemed genuinely interested in understanding the cause of the problem and making a positive difference. He gave me some great tips on stretching, which are helping, and made me want to return for follow up treatments.

I received a 60-minute hydrfacial as a gift and I have to say it was disappointing. I arrived exactly at the time of my appointment, and was asked to wait upstairs for several minutes. The facialist brought me to the service room and by the time I undressed and was ready, it was a full ten minutes after the appointment was set to start. The facial itself was fine but nothing terribly unique. It ended 29 minutes after it started and when I brought up that the person who bought me the gift had been charged $255 (though the website says the 60 minute hydra facial costs $235), the person at the desk took $60 off to bring it to the 45 minute hydra facial price and pressured me into leaving a tip, which I did. 45 minutes is still 15 minutes longer than what I experienced and at a price of $100/15 minutes, this was a complete waste of money. No change whatsoever in my skin.

I absolutely loved the facilities and the staff at Nurture! Everyone was incredibly friendly and welcoming and the services I received were wonderful. The only issue I had is that as a plus size individual I felt very uncomfortable. I used the larger sized robes provided and they barely wrapped around me. I am a size 18. It was stressful trying to not expose myself when I was told to sit in the common area and wait. This is the only thing that would deter me from coming back...it was very embarrassing and uncomfortable. In the future I hope there would be more options for robes or I could just bring my own. Aside from the robes, I had a wonderful experience and loved having a day of pampering there.

I absolutely loved my experience and services I received. Nurture is beautiful, inviting, the staff was incredible welcoming and kind. The facilities were clean and elegant. However, as a plus size individual I was extremely uncomfortable at times. I wear a size 18 and the robes given to me (even the larger sizes they had) barely wrapped around me. I could not comfortably sit without exposing myself. This is the only issue that would deter me from returning, although I suppose next time I could just bring my own robe. I felt super self conscious and hyper nervous during the times I was in the common area, but aside from those times my experience was very relaxing and enjoyable.

My facial is just what the doctor ordered...Olivia did a phenomenal job sending me into a state of relaxation during my facial. She explained everything that she was going to do to my face, and gave me helpful suggestions to keep my skin cleansed and moisturized! I HIGHLY recommend Olivia to anyone in need of a facial!

Rhonda was absolutely perfect. Her affable nature, as well as, her attentiveness to my needs were really important for my trust in her services and treatment. I did a citrus and lavender body scrub, and she was sure to walk me through the process and ensured that her directions were explicit. She was very polite and gracious with giving me privacy throughout the treatment. I absolutely loved her massaging techniques when applying the agave after exfoliation. She also made sure to treat my scalp, head, and chest with some peppermint oil since I mentioned to her that I experience stress from those places. I definitely will return for a full massage treatment in the future.

Loved it. Such a beautiful place and my facial was amazing. The only thing I would say is there there is a lot of stairs to go down to the locker room and then back up to the top, my mom has a bad knee so she was struggling with that. I feel like there should be an elevator for people who have issues/injuries like that. Other than that everything was really great!

From the moment I walked in with my mother in law, we felt relaxed and at ease immediately! The classy and uncluttered decor was perfectly serene. Every staff member we encountered was so friendly and helpful. We never felt uncomfortable once! My mother in law loved her massage; she said her masseuse focused on exactly the spots where she felt sore, and gave her great post-massage self-care tips! I had a facial, which was absolutely delightful! My esthetician observed and diagnoses my skin issues, and tailored my facial perfectly to my skin concerns! It was so relaxing and refreshing. Our pedicures were so pleasant as well! The pedicure room with the beautiful sunny windows felt so comfortable and cozy, and our warming neck pillows were such a wonderful touch! The salt cave was also such a nice way to begin our spa day experience! The entire spa was clean and airy, and gave off such a happy vibe! We absolutely cannot wait to go back for our next treatments!

I recently had a hydrofacial at Nurture Spa. My skin looks great but I was very surprised by the lack of "spa-manner". The clinician did not ask me anything about my skin. Every other facial I've ever had - including hydrofacials at other spas - has included a should massage and some oils or lotion on my neck and shoulders. Nurture Spa doesn't say they do this on their website, but I was very surprised at the very bare minimum for this pricey facial. Additionally, the host that checked us in, showed us the ladies room/ changing room entrance but without any elaboration, didn't walk us in our let us know that there was a sauna - which we thankfully discovered at the end of our visit when looking for a toilet. Its a lovely property but I'm unlikely to return because I've become accustomed to a more immersive-ly relaxing spa experience.

Great experience! Loved the raindrop massage - will definitely repeat. We both feel so much better today! Lisa and Veronica did a great job! The mani/pedi was fun - great chemistry and a good chat. Love this spa!

As always, another excellent massage from Olivia, who is very attentive to unique circumstances for each session. This time it was some tough adhesions that she encountered that needed some extra work to eradicate them. I am grateful for the special attention, as it adds to my overall relaxation and feeling of wellbeing.

Top notch spa experience. Wife and I both got 90 minute customized massages. They were awesome. Very relaxed atmosphere, nice locker rooms if you prefer to shower afterward and plenty of relaxing nooks to sit in and chill after your massage. Staff was friendly and accommodating and I highly recommend this spa.

This experience was not great. I've had a facial here several times before, and brought my cousin who was visiting from out of town. (I didn't receive the $10 for referring her). Luckily, she had a lovely experience, and left very happy. I feel like had I never had a facial before, this one still would not have been acceptable. I'm not sure if the face steamer was broken, but it wasn't used and I'm pretty sure I heard it trying to be turned on a few times. Also, the towels were not always warm...sometimes they were downright cold. I go for a facial, not just for the skin benefits, but for the relaxation factor as well and I just didn't really get it this time. There were things being cleaned and clanged around drawers being opened and shut. The first facial I ever had here was incredible which is why I went back, but since then, they just don't match up. I may give it one more shot, but as of right now, I'm not sure.

I was desperate for a facial and just happened to meet the owner of Nurture Spa at my gym. I booked the appointment online which saved the need to get there early to fill out paperwork with healthcare issues, allergies, etc.I was even able to pay online. Jina was ready for me when I arrived and within minutes we were ready to roll. The spa itself is beautiful. Very welcoming without anyone being pretentious. Impeccably clean and everyone I encountered was professional yet friendly. My facial was fantastic and I felt like my skin was so light when I left. One thing I really appreciated was no up selling. She recommended one product with absolutely zero pressure and told me when the products I use run out if I want to try another one she will recommend something else. The same with services. She gave me a few guidelines and that was it. Parking was easy. I can't say enough great things. I am going back in a month for two new services.

When my wife and I began a long weekend away from it all in New Hope PA the first thing we did was treat ourselves to a couples massage at Nurture Spa. It was one of the best things we did and I can hardly wait till we have a chance to visit New Hope, and Nurture Spa, again. Special thanks to my massage therapist, Teresita, who found and healed tension in my back that I didn't even know was there. I feel SO much better.

Hi yes well I welcome the chance to give feedback. Veronica was wonderful and I had a most relaxing massage. beyond relaxing, I was totally in another realm! This appointment was made for me by my daughter Jasmine Papageorge. She had explained to me that her mother-in-law, Linda Papageorge, had purchased a batch of ten massages and then their favorite masseuse left and there were still 4 massages left to use up. at the spa I was given form to fill out wherein I did write down Jasmine's name. and other info, like contact info. when I was done with massage, I was floating a few above ground! when I went upstairs I was a bit spacey and I did say something to the young blond woman at the front desk and young man she was chatting with about my state and I asked where is the exit...? while relating how spacey I was.... (duh, it was right ahead but as I said I was very spacey from my massage.) well I got barely a look or a nod from blond at desk and I left the building. I walked to the parking lot across the street to return to my car and was engaging in conversation with the nice young man about his job as valet. all of a sudden the blond was right there and said to me that I had just left without paying. Oh My God, I was flabbergasted and my high plummeted. It was humiliating and I then had to explain about the 10 massage deal and how there 4 left and that my daughter made the appointment.... and so it did dawn on her when I mentioned Linda's name and she said "sorry". but by then I was choking back tears- it was such a shocking drop from the euphoria I had reached from the massage. 1. I haven't talked to my daughter about it(she is vacationing and I do not wish to bring this up to her while she's away) so I don't know if she had made it clear when she made the appointment that it was already paid for. 2. but there WAS the form I filled out. 3. and I DID (try) to engage blonde on my out but she was busy chatting with the young man and my overture went unanswered and I do have to say it did strike me as a tiny bit rude. I am a friendly gal (as seen in my engaging the valet, I like to connect with people...) and I actually said in my mind, "wow, once one is done with the session, now the super friendly service is no longer in evidence!" but no biggie, I shrugged it off- we older women are used to such. young people understandably relate more to young people right? I also said something like "ya all should get it together- all the upliftment from my session with Veronica is now diminished." now I do understand that maybe Jasmine did not make it clear about the payment of the massage when she made the appointment. or if she did, perhaps "blonde" wasn't aware of it. but wow, she sure did have a chance to stop and ask me about payment BEFORE I left the building but was too distracted by the young fellow. so the accosting me in the parking lot COULD have been avoided! I would encourage you to find a way to avoid this mistake in the future. in retrospect, they should have gone to the form I filled out(or have paid attention as I was leaving and looking right at her AND TALKING TO HER about my spaceyness and where is the exit....!) maybe she would have put it together about the payment, from the info on the form. or simply called me rather than chase me down! I don't know but IT SURE WAS A HUGE BRING DOWN FROM WHAT HAD BEEN A HEAVENLY MASSAGE.

While I was late for my appointment I had an appoint with with someone else my appointment went OK but the person that I was with was rushed I'd rather of them say they were not going do their eyebrows. Basically we paid $80 for less than a half hours worth of work. It was disappointing because the person I was with was really unhappy with the experience and felt like they didn't get the respect that they deserve as a customer.

I organized a spa day bachelorette party for 9 girls at Nurture Spa and it was amazing! I had never heard of the spa prior to booking for our party but, it was amazing. The staff was so diligent about the scheduling of each of our services. They also followed up with me with questions and to confirm our bookings prior to our arrival. Additionally, they allowed me to bring mimosas and brunch food to set up on the patio attached to their nail salon floor and it was absolutely perfect! Our party was in May so, when it got a bit too hot out on the deck there was indoor seating and couches for us to relax while other girls got their services. The experience was great! So much so that I live about 40mins away in NJ and I will be back for sure! Especially with valet parking across the street that the spa validates for you! That in itself was a treat since parking in New Hope can often be difficult. I cannot say enough good things about this spa and their staff!

The services I had were on differ floors and I had lots of stairs to climb. Secondly, where the pedicures are done, it was quite warm and almost too bright. Could use more AC and some shades. The services we great. The stairs and the heat, not so much.

It was a FANTASTIC experience! I received a body scrub/wrap treatment and massage from Kerry, and it was the best spa experience I have ever had. The front staff, (Nicole especially) were knowledgeable, welcoming and friendly. The owner, Dorothy, was very accommodating and helpful. I have a membership at a different massage franchise, and I am seriously considering a move to this spa. I have already booked a facial, and my next massage and treatment from Kerry. This was a true spa experience, Locker rooms, lounges and organic tasty treatments were available at no charge. My favorite detail was that there was a shower area right in the treatment room, so that between treatments I was able to shower off privately without going to another room. This place is a bit more expensive than a regular massage franchise membership, but if you are looking to seriously upgrade your experience, this place is well worth the extra costs. Be aware, though, that gratuities are accepted by cash or check ONLY. This came as a surprise to me, but I think is an acceptable minor inconvenience. I would recommend this spa without reservation! It was the best spa experience that I have ever had. Please note: I was NOT paid for this review or rewarded in any way other than my fabulous experience. These are my honest opinions!

Everyone at the spa is genuinely friendly. I love their pedicures - the spa is VERY CLEAN. The new space is beautiful and relaxing. Kim gave me a beautiful pedicure using Deborah Lippman nail colors. I had a relaxing afternoon. Free parking at Logan Inn, which is across the street. The spa pedicure may be a bit pricey, but it is SO worth it. The pedicures last a long time. I don't make time to get nails done regularly, so it's a luxury when I go.

I love this place!! Being a lover of good spa treatments & from NY (where spas are a dime a dozen), I've visited many. Nurture is in my top 3 in the country & 2 in the tri-state area. If it were closer to me, probably my #1. The staff are stellar. The new location is gorgeous & huge. You can see & feel the active way they try to improve guest experiences. Special thanks to Olivia for my amazing spa treatments but also going out of her way to massage a painful back spasm during my facial.

Had a customized 60 minute massage with Kerry today. This was 2nd visit to the spa but the first in their new location on Ferry. IT WAS AWESOME. Superb customer service, product placement without hard pressure sales, comfortable atmosphere.

Kerry was personable and knowledgeable. Her neck work was superb. I asked her questions about my partner coming for a massage with multiple neck surgeries and she was informative and open. Incredibly satisfied overall. Thank you!

My technician was excellent. The new facility is beautiful. My only complaint has to do with the women's locker room. Someone should ensure that everything is fully stocked throughout the day, ie, clean slippers on rack, robes in all lockers and steam room up and running. I will definitely return.

This was a wonderful experience. The massage, the masseuses, the scents, the hot stones, the warm towels, and warm little neck pillow towards the end..... I loved it. The check-in process could be improved. There's nothing pleasurable about it. We had to sit in this waiting area to complete our intake forms while we were still all bundled up from being outside. Then once we we were taken to the room, there was no designated space to keep our clothing, just coat hooks. Nevertheless, this place is great!

Spa was sub par, very sterile, did not feel comfortable or relaxing. No place to change your clothes, shower or even fix your hair after treatment. Lounge has large windows overlooverlooking a parking lot so no privacy. My original services were all downgraded because they had no alternative for lotions or aromatherapy that did not have almond oil - I am allergic to nuts. There are WAY better places in New Hope, spend your money elsewhere.

She offered me different genres of music for during my session and she told me exactly what my session was about, this was my first experiences of raindrop therapy, and she asked the purpose of my massage whether it was relaxation or deep tissue. Multiple uses of hot towels and hot stones. It was excellent.

My friend and I booked last minute services with Nurture Spa. The staff was friendly and happy to accommodate an unforeseen appointment change. Both my friend and I were very pleased with our services (I got a facial and she got a massage). The only criticism I can give is that I could here people talking in the hallway just outside of the treatment room - which kind of detracted from the experience as a whole.

I love coming to Nurture for its quiet and calm. I also believe Nurture gives the best and longest lasting pedicures to be had. Jill is a detail-oriented person who makes sure that each toenail is perfect and takes super care of you while she works her magic. The surroundings are serene, you can just relax there, and everyone is perfectly on the job to make your experience both delightful and effective. If you want a jangly, noisy, busy experience, go somewhere else. If you want to arrive and be well cared for and leave with impeccable feet after a caring, soothing experience, then this is for you. I don't go anywhere else. I don't even like to drive and I make the effort because it's that far above the others.

I had the most wonderful, relaxing 80-minute prenatal massage at Nurture Spa yesterday. I've had many massages in the past, but this was my first prenatal massage, so I wasn't sure what to expect. Prior to starting, my therapist Kerry asked me all the right questions about how my pregnancy was going, how I was feeling, and areas that were highly tense or stressed due to the additional weight. Being at the start of my 3rd trimester, I was able to use the "pregnancy pillow" and lie on my stomach for half of the massage, which was awesome. I left feeling totally rejuvenated, and would recommend to any pregnant woman!

Yesterday was my first return to the nurture spa and I must say I was disappointed. I did not feel that the quality of services matched my first experience with Courtney. I was really looking forward to my massage and facial and I am not sure I will come back. I expect consistency in the quality of services from an award winning establishment. Yesterday I felt like I should have just went to a hand and stone or massage envy.

This was my first time to Nurture Spa. I have been to a few different spas including Toppers and Nurture Spa is too on my list. My reasons for my ratings are the atmosphere and the staff. The Spa is very clean, relaxing and inviting. It's not a big loud place. I have been to spas where you hear loud conversations, phones ringing and to me that's not my idea of a relaxing massage. The staff is wonderful from the front desk to the therapists. After my amazing massage from Teresita, I found myself relaxed and believe it or not I could breathe again. The knots in my shoulders and upper back were so bad and tight I found I wasn't able to take a deep breath. Lastly when it was over as you walk to the desk there is a section for procured to purchase. Of course I had to get myself and friend something including purchasing 2 gift cards for presents. Overall a fabulous experience.

Normally I would give 5 stars, but this time my time got screwed up.... When I called in for an appointment I got the time 10:30 a.m. and immediately wrote it down in my calendar. 2 days later I drove to my appointment (it was 10:15 a.m.) and I got a call from Nurture Spa. I asked if something is with my time and the woman at the front desk told my I was booked for 10 a.m.. I was surprised and had felt guilty for screwing up my timing, but when I looked in my calendar it was definitely 10:30 a.m.. So Olivia my cosmetician was only doing the 1/2 leg waxing and not my eyebrows, because the next client was already there for 10:45 a.m.. I never screwed up my timings in the past and I always came earlier than booked, I could swear that it was scheduled for 10:30 a.m. and not for 10:00 a.m.. During my waxing, I mentioned to Olivia that I did not get a confirmation about my appointment and when I left the Spa and checked my mobile phone messages, I discovered a message from Nurture Spa at 9:00 a.m. to confirm the appointment for same day at 10:00 a.m.. I am sorry, but a confirmation call 1 hour before the actual session doesn't make any sense at all, it's too short of a notice. This time I am really not happy about my last appointment regarding the person I booked at the front desk!

Both treatments were fantastic - my father was nervous as this was his first visit to a spa but Carolyn was so very kind and personable that he relaxed very quickly. Nurture is a top notch spa! I live in New York City, and am fortunate to be able to compare to some pretty great spas. Nurture is right up there with the best I have been to! I have been taken care of by therapist Olivia on a number of occasions now, and she is equally talented at facials as massage. All of the staff my husband and I have encountered at Nurture are professional and talented at what they do. The environment is very serene and immaculately clean. If I had one suggestion it would be that in the beautiful waiting area, the sheer curtains might be replaced by something more opaque so that the cars outside are not visible. That's the only detractor from the otherwise Zen-like ambiance.

I had a pedicure and Jill my manicurist was great however the environment was not very relaxing. I have my toes done to relax and unwind. The room had two other clients who talked loudly the whole time. They left an another arrived and talked the whole time. I understand people may come to socialize but there must be a better way to set up the room so we all don't need to hear the intimate details of their life.

It is always a wonderful experience going to Nurture. Everyone at front desk is wonderful and I can't say enough about Kerry's massage. After a multi level spinal fusion and additional hardware in my back, Kerry is able to break up scar tissue and knows exactly how much pressure to use. I can't recommend her highly enough. Book in advance, she's popular!

The scrub and massage were great. Not the best I've ever had, but very good. However, the oil for the massage was cold and the room was a little cold so it wasn't as calming as if they had been warm. Upon arrival I wasn't offered tea or water like many other spas offer. Also, I understand this would be a difficult change but when waiting for the massage I could hear everything the woman in the reception was saying which took away from the "spa like experience". Usually there is some soft music and relaxing ambience which really set the mood for the experience which people pay a lot for. All minor things and as mentioned Courtney was great. Just some things could have been better about the experience itself.

My experience at Nurture was, as always, perfect. Mini facial and pedi are a great way to kick off spring and Gwen took superb care of me. Nurture is quiet and peaceful. You're rarely aware of anybody else. I asked if it was a slow day and was told no, it was actually busier than usual. What a treat, to feel like the only person there. My face and toes look super and my insides are soothed and unjangled.

We discovered this spa on a recent visit to the countryside in Stockton, NJ. If the change of pace from our visit to Southern NJ from Northern NJ wasn't relaxing enough, the expert services from Michelle were sure to ease the stress. The spa is clean/comfortable and conveniently located. The fees are comparable to other spas in the area but we chose Nurture spa due to other customer reviews and its popularity. We will certainly return and surely recommend this spa to others that may travel to this area.

Booked two 80-minute "customized" massages for my husband and myself. Neither of us felt that our therapists regarded our instructions for areas to focus on. It just seemed like they were going through the motions for their typical 80-minute session. I would have found the massage more beneficial had my areas of concern been better addressed.

As a man, I'm sometimes shy when making an appointment at a spa, but Nuture's staff made me feel welcome the moment I walked in the door. The environment, layout and decor is top notch and their playlist isn't the cliched pan flute soundtrack, which I so appreciated. My Dermalogica facial treatment was the best experience I've had in a spa. I felt and looked great afterward. I'm going back for a massage next.

I was blessed enough to have a dear friend treat me to a massage at Nurture Spa during a recent weekend visit. I am a Spa brat and am relatively high maintenance when it comes to the atmosphere as well as the massage itself. My experience at Nurture was AMAZING. From the initial warm welcome from the receptionist, to the nice lounge area with refreshments, and the quiet room for my blissful experience. My only disappointment is that I live in Wisconsin and won't be back anytime soon :-)

It was one of the best facials I've had anywhere. I loved the massage portion of the hour, it was like having a mini upper body massage thrown in along with the facial. I also truly appreciated that there was no pushing of products after the facial was over... just some samples to take home and try. A really enjoyable visit start to finish.

I had a wonderful experience at Nurture Spa. The facial was amazing. The peel was the best part; my skin felt so soft and smooth like never before. Olivia did such a great job and was very knowledgeable about skincare and products to use. I also loved the warm welcome I received when I came in. The receptionist took me to a very nice waiting room and offered a drink. Very professional, very relaxing, very good services. I will be going back!

Compared with spas I visit here in the south a few things are different at your spa. Comparing at same price range ... I feel the waiting room should have a light healthy snack and some sort of sound .. Relaxing music or water feature .. I was also disappointed in the tea selection for that price I would think a higher quality tea would be served.. It honestly cheapened the experience My facial was excellent my massage s ok.. Just not my style and I didn't like that I was on my back the entire time.. She should have asked if that was ok ..

Per my regular appointments with Gwen, she was excellent! Her talent is exceptional; client approach professional; and interpersonal skills top notch. She always brightens the day. Gwen is a definite asset to Nurture. As usual, Tina was wonderful and efficient with her handling a very busy practice. Without missing a beat, the phone ringing and clients wanting to reschedule or close out their services; she never made you feel less important. Kiddos to both Gwen and Tina! Martin

I have been going to Nurture Spa for massage treatments for years now and I am always satisfied with the services I'm provided. The spa is very clean, the staff is friendly and helpful. The products sold in the front are of high quality and a very nicely displayed. I keep my appointments with Teresita - she is extremely professional, friendly, and attentive. Before every massage she asks me if there are any problem areas I would like focused on, the pressure I'm comfortable with, and if I have any other concerns. I've been going to Teresita for a few years now and will continue to. She's the best!!

I've been to Nurture many times before but when I received an email with a 20% discount available for massages in the next couple days I decided to schedule one for me and my wife. Between the two massages the discount saved me nearly $60 and the massage was wonderful. I have had several different masseuses there and they have all been excellent. Courtney was my masseuse for this visit, who I had never had before and she was as good, if not better than others there. The place is relaxing, friendly, nice, located next to a fabulous deli and gym, and reasonably priced I think. I'd highly recommend to anyone.

Facial was great. My husband loved his massage and said that Eric got out all the knots in his back. We left extremely relaxed. The only thing that was missing for us, and why Nurture gets 4 stars instead of 5, was a changing room where we could store our belongings in lockers and have a chance to get comfy in robes.

I travel extensively for work and have the opportunity to be in Philadelphia Center City for the weekend. I went online to look for a day spa and found many choices. I wanted to spa where I felt like I could be myself yet get the amazing treatments I always look forward to. I found nurture spa and although it was an hour away I felt that nurture spa fit exactly what I was looking for. My expectations were exceeded. I highly recommend Dominique! Dominique performed my spa manicure and spa pedicure. My nails look absolutely awesome my feet feel like they are brand-new.

Dominique is also very personable as is everyone I came in contact with at the spa. I was made to feel like I was a repeat customer and a valued customer the minute I walk through the door until the minute I left. It was a wonderful experience and when I have the opportunity to return to the Philadelphia area I will invest the hour Drive and go to Newhope and see Dominique and the staffat nurture spa

I always love my experience at Nuture. This time I was a little disappointed. My husband and I scheduled simultaneous pedicures. I expected that while I got polished he would at least get a little extra massage or exfoliation. Instead his service ended about 20 minutes before mine did - definitely wasn't worth the $60 for the service. Won't do that again.

I am a hard critic with having massages every couple of months. My average rating means I would recommend it to someone else. Nurture Spa provides the client with much need one one one. After walking all the way down their hallway that resembles something out of the shining, I walked into a more typical looking massage room. My focus massage was done with a precise care and afterwards my care taker discussed prevention plans for me to do at home. The only thing is I signed up for a quick fix and then upon laying on the table I got a longer massage. I am not complaining but I did have to pay more. So make sure you discuss the form of massage you want to your care taker and do not assume they looked at your online request.

Courtney gave a good massage, but i can't rate it more than "average" since I have been spoiled by Kerri's 5 star massages for years. I am really sorry about her broken arm and hope that she heals quickly and completely. The world needs Kerri to be giving massages again. As always, the front desk was very welcoming and the place was immaculate. All good. Thanks.

I had an 80 minute prenatal massage with Eric and it was the best massage of my life! The setup was great for a prenatal massage with pillows that allowed me to lay in my stomach. Eric asked about the areas I wanted to focus on and the proceeded to work those areas with the perfect amount of pressure. I left feeling better than I have in months and immediately scheduled my next appointment. What a great find!!

I have had fabulous massages, but in all honestly the manis and pedis were just ok. The staff was wonderful, but the setting was not as relaxing as some in the area, and the seats for the pedicures were downright uncomfortable. More expensive than most in the area as well. I'll be back for massages, but not for manis or pedis. Sorry for less than stellar feedback, but hopefully it's helpful.

This was my first visit to Nurture. The hot stonemassage was wonderful! The environment is light, airy, contemporary. The massage rooms dim the lights and are also modern. The massages all use hot oils which I'd never experienced before but enjoyed. I also really like the subtle use of scent (although I'd prefer herbal to orange and peppermint). The music was a relaxing mix of soothing audio from an in room player. I'd prefer all nature sounds from a central sound system but the music worked. Overall a great experience and I left feeling relaxed and energized!

I have been to Nurture Spa many times, and I am always very happy with my experience. On my most recent visit yesterday, I received a hot stone massage, which was absolutely fabulous. The 'rocks' in my shoulders melted away and I am continuing to feel renewed. The ambiance of Nurture Spa is upscale, yet comfortable and casually elegant. The front desk personnel are always welcoming and friendly, and Taracita (sp?), the massage therapist was very therapeutic, applying just the right amount of pressure. I highly recommend Nurture Spa for your next massage - and it is a wonderful gift! On this occasion, I used a Mother's Day gift certificate from my son - there is no better gift! Go to Nurture when that's what you want: nurturing. From check in to departure, your way is smoothed. It's quiet, peaceful, and an oasis. I had a pedicure and the meticulous care they took of my feet will make the difference in lasting, as I know from previous experience. The people at Nurture are kind but never smothering, the surroundings are minimalist and ever so relaxing, and the pedicures last for weeks. This is my go-to place for whatever I need. Not interested in anywhere else.

Olivia, my therapist, was THE BEST! I found a recommendation for her on Trip Advisor, and she surely didn't disappoint. If I lived in there area, I would come to her regularly. I've had many massages, and she was the best yet! Do yourself a favor and book a lil appt for yourself!

I came to Nuture spa for my birthday with a girlfriend. It was a Friday afternoon since I had the day off. I got a hot stone massage, a facial and a mani/pedi. I live in Philadelphia PA and had called some Philly spas but never got the kindness and warmth that Nurture gave me when I called to inquire. I live an hour away and I immediately booked my spa day with them as the experience from the first phone call was easy and pleasant. I had a fantastic massage and my very first facial. After the massage and facial my friend and I ate some lunch from the place next door. We were able to pick up and eat right at the spa which was really great and relaxing. We were not rushed through lunch even though we were behind on our mani/pedi time. They gave us our space and were not pushy at all. Then we both had an amazing mani/pedi. They asked us if we prefer manicure or pedicure first which I appreciated as i prefer a mani first. It was relaxing and the space is really beautiful. And the whole spa smells amazing! The robes are heavenly. I wanted to take one home :) The owner is humble and all in all it was a truly wonderful day. I can't wait to go back! Worth every penny spent.

When Nurture Spa sent me the confirmation for the appointment, I was given the name of a female masseuse, but when I arrived for my massage, I was surprised to see a male! He was fine, but I really would have preferred a female. Also, the relaxation mood was spoiled by noisy conversations coming through the wall from the business next door. For a pricey spa, one would expect more attention to detail.

I had a great manicure (actually, I've had two here recently) and both of my practitioners were very nice and did very nice jobs. My experience was great right from the start. I haven't been to Nurture for a while. I love the way Nurture is decorated and the way it is laid out so I have always favored it compared to the Doylestown area spas. I stopped going to Nurture because there was a person at the front desk who just didn't seem as though she was aware that the clients were the reason she had a job. I just don't want to have to shake off a negative interaction at a Day Spa. The last two times I came, I was made to feel that my business was appreciated and that everyone was concerned about my experience. The new girl at the front desk couldn't be nicer!!! Other Day Spas in the area do not have the best front desk staffs. It makes a difference. I'll be bringing my business exclusively to Nurture. I look forward to receiving many of the other services offered.

I had the 80 minute customized massage with Steve. It was more than I expected and I felt great afterward. Steve was very good and used exactly the right pressure when needed. I'm already planning another visit and will be purchasing a gift certificate for my partner too. Great experience, thank you all for the welcoming atmosphere and very friendly service.

Yesterday I had one of the best if not the best facials ever at Nurture Spa. Nancy was incredible and today my skin glows and is less dry. Thank you for the amazing experience and results. I went home and took a long nap and today I look good without makeup. I have had facials at Canyon Ranch, Arizona and numerous other places but this was one of the best. Thank you Nancy and thank you Nurture Spa for having great people who really do their job with caring professionalism! I highly recommend all their services.

I have had about 3 or 4 body scrubs at your spa, and they have all been outstanding until my last appointment. I don't know if she was a new employee or a new graduate. She was very pleasant. The body scrub was not done with any pressure or thoroughness. The room was chilly and I had to ask to have my feet covered. The moisturizing part of the service was just as disappointing. Previously, it felt like a luxurious massage. All in all, a very disappointing appointment. I have to ask that you keep this review confidential from my friend D Cepparulo who made the appointment for me.

I loved my massage at the Nurture Spa, what made it even better was that it was a birthday surprise from my girlfriends; I was more excited than the average bear because of this. My masseuse was very soft-spoken and polite, as was the rest of the staff I encountered. (I can't remember his name unfortunately but he had brown hair and wore a bun). I had had a lot of tension in my shoulder, neck, and back and he absolutely helped relieve that pain. I was completely relaxed and dozed off for a little bit. I'd love to come back soon for another massage!!
