

The historic Georgia Railroad Freight Depot in Atlanta, Georgia, was the perfect backdrop for our fashion shoot. From the actual Freight Room, with well-appointed, exposed brick walls, to the Blue Room, it's no wonder this is one of Atlanta's popular wedding venues. The venue is conveniently nestled in the Capitol Hill district of downtown Atlanta. The stunning Winnie Chlomin ball gown, with dramatic, ribbon-edged organza skirt and Swarovski crystal details, felt like the perfect dress for the 'Urban Chic' bride.

Winnie Chlomin, (Olinda) ball gown with gathered tulle skirt and lace bodice with Swarovski beading, $4,989; earrings, Beatrice by Amrita Singh, $75.
