Why You Should Participate

This exhibition is more than simply hanging artwork on a wall—it is a chance to actively support and grow the Studio Texas community.

Earn exhibition credits

Your participation in events is recorded and documented for earned membership levels.

Expand Your Audience

Your work will be seen by collectors, patrons, and fellow artists attending the Lone Star Art Guild event, introducing your art to new audiences who may not yet know your work.

Strengthen the Studio Texas Brand

When members exhibit together, we demonstrate the strength, diversity, and professionalism of the Studio Texas community. A strong showing of member work helps build the reputation of Studio Texas as an organization committed to excellence.

Create Sales Opportunities

Events like this bring together art buyers specifically interested in discovering original artwork. Participating gives you the chance to generate new collectors and sales.

Support Fellow Members

Your participation helps create a vibrant and dynamic exhibition that benefits all members. The more artists who participate, the stronger the exhibition becomes.

Be Part of the Momentum

Studio Texas continues to grow in visibility and impact. Exhibiting together allows members to be part of that momentum and helps ensure future opportunities like this one.

Let's Show the Strength of Studio Texas

One of the greatest assets of Studio Texas is the extraordinary talent within its membership. This exhibition is an opportunity to celebrate that talent and present it collectively to the public.

We encourage every member to participate. When Studio Texas artists show up together, we create an exhibition that is powerful, inspiring, and impossible to ignore.
