cast

claudia ferri

Claudia Ferri's presence in feature films and television is comprised of compelling and versatile performances. One moment commanding as Judge Charbonneau in Bad Blood (trending on Netflix), downright scary as La Capitana in Queen of the South, taunting as Native American Chief Nicole Jackson The Killing or endearing as Maria Auditore Assassin's Creed II; Lineage. Claudia Ferri's brand is about memorable character essence.

Ferri's interpretation of Carmen, a wife and mother challenged with a diagnosis of early onset Alzheimer's in at the age of 52 is a stand out. Ferri's performance is a major contender for best actress any film festival or award season.

Dana's extensive credits of film and television, but is best known for his starring roles as Bobby Briggs in David Lynch's Twin Peaks Universe. His once cult following has now turned mainstream with the commercial success of David Lynch's 2017 Twin Peaks reboot.

With his performance as Pat Moffett, Ashbrook demonstrates a dramatic tenor that his previous screen characters have not had the opportunity to face, making this film a must see for any loyal David Lynch or Twin Peaks fan.

Since 2004, Tobin Bell has been inseparable from that of the nightmarish villain Jigsaw in the the SAW horror film series. In contrast, Tobin's performance as Pop, Grandfather of 2, Pat's father and emotional support system, is performed with comedic brilliance and an emotional sensitivity that will surely surprise his loyal fans. This career highlight performance is proof that Tobin has the dramatic and comedic chops of a truly great actor beyond the genre of Horror.
