Just had my wedding here last night and since then I have been showered with compliments from guests who were in awe of how beautiful the venue is and how attentive Paula and her staff were. My partner and I felt like VIPs sitting in the sweetheart booth getting doted on by the wait staff. The fact that the venue is inclusive of florals, catering, music, and more is simply unmatched and we loved that The Homestead didn't feel like a corporately owned venue—they seemed to be really invested in making sure we were happy and as stress free as possible." -Danielle K.
