
Best Wedding & Party Planner 2023 – Metro Vancouver

Living for glamorous weddings and events, Kavita Mohan is an award-winning planner with superhuman attention to detail and sparkle. Based in Canada, and having dedicated her life to creating extraordinary events to make people smile, Kavita tells us more as she is recognised in the prestigious Global Wedding Awards 2023.

Kavita Mohan Event Planning provides corporate event planning, local wedding planning, destination wedding planning, and multicultural wedding planning services in Vancouver, Burnaby, Surrey, Richmond, and the Lower Mainland.

The full-service event production and design studio excels in creating unique and unforgettable events, born from a thoughtful and vivacious planning experience to a select number of clients per year.

As Owner, Principal Planner, and Designer of Kavita Mohan Event Planning, the firm's namesake, Kavita Mohan, breathes life and energy into weddings, parties, and events. With an artful mind, caring sincere heart, and an eye for a refined aesthetic, it is her passion to bring her clients' dreams to life.

"The word 'impossible' doesn't exist in my vocabulary," Kavita elaborates. "I will go to great lengths to ensure that all the details that go into organising an event are impeccable and nothing short of breath taking! We thrive on seeing the sparkle in your eyes as we weave together everything, from stunning aesthetics down to the tiniest of details."

With her passion driven by the joy of making any event an extraordinary experience, Kavita relishes in watching as her clients get increasingly excited as the big day draws near. In Kavita's world, no two events are the same, and every client gets their story uniquely envisioned and glamorously realised.

Kavita's outgoing warm personality, immense creativity, and resourcefulness drew her more than a decade ago to start organising parties for her beloved friends and family. This awoke in her a passion and she found her calling in helping people celebrate their important life events.

Kavita's 20 plus years of experience working in a corporate environment gave her the insight to skilfully master organisation, budget, and efficiency within a specified timeframe and she knows her craft in and out. She invests her energy solely in creating iconic sophisticated events that would charm anyone.

The dedicated team at Kavita Mohan Event Planning has mastered the process, challenges and joys of event planning at the highest level.

"Our work doesn't just consist of creating a show stopping event, it is about bringing peace of mind to our clients, and providing a thoughtful but also exciting experience," enthuses Kavita. "To work with us means to have your dreams realised – our heartfelt goal is to listen, to understand your vision, and to inspire you."

Recently, in recognition of the hard work and commitment that Kavita and the entire team put into each and every spectacular event they plan, the firm was rewarded with the title of Best Wedding & Party Planner 2023 – Metro Vancouver.

Now, the future looks bright as Kavita plans on continuing her mission to make every event she plans and undertakes her very best!
