

Job Opening: Musical Theatre Teachers (Part-Time)

Do you believe in the power of storytelling, creativity, and community? Do you light up when students discover their confidence, find their voice, and step into the spotlight? If so, we want YOU to join our Hopeful family.

The Hopeful Theatre Project is growing our new Academy and expanding our classes for Spring 2026 and Summer 2026! We're searching for passionate, energetic, and inspiring Musical Theatre Teachers who are ready to pour into the next generation of performers.

About Us: The Hopeful Theatre Project is dedicated to bringing love, hope, and aid to our community through the performing arts. We use local talent to benefit various charity organizations, creating meaningful connections and impactful experiences.

What You'll Do

- Teach high-quality musical theatre classes in singing, dancing, acting, and performance fundamentals
- Create a positive, supportive, and inclusive environment where every student feels seen and valued
- Develop curriculum, class plans, and engaging activities that spark creativity and growth
- Collaborate with our team to ensure a seamless learning experience from rehearsal to showcase
- Bring your own artistic flair and professional experience to motivate and uplift students

Who You Are

- A theatre educator, performer, or choreographer with experience teaching youth
- Someone who leads with kindness, patience, and enthusiasm
- A strong communicator committed to helping students shine both onstage and in life
- Reliable, organized, and excited to be part of a mission-driven nonprofit
- Available for weekly classes in Spring 2026 and/or seasonal camps in Summer 2026

Why You'll Love Working With Us

At The Hopeful Theatre Project, we believe theatre changes lives. Through our shows and our education program, we create magic both onstage and in the community—funding local causes, lifting up families in need, and nurturing young artists. When you join us, you're not just teaching... you're helping build a legacy of hope, heart, and creativity.
