

Upper School English Teacher (Grades 7th-12th) Job Description

Time Responsibility: Part-Time (4-6 hrs./wk. in class, 2-3 hrs./wk. prep time)

Position Overview

We are seeking a passionate, Spirit-filled English Teacher to join our dedicated faculty in the vibrant learning environment of The Samuel School. The ideal candidate is a born-again Christian who lives out their faith, is led by the Holy Spirit, and is committed to equipping students academically while nurturing their spiritual growth. This role involves teaching English language arts (including literature, writing, grammar, and communication skills) in a way that integrates Kingdom truth, inspiring students to glorify God through excellence in thought, word, and deed.

Key Responsibilities

- Plan, prepare, and deliver engaging, Holy Spirit-inspired lessons that align with the school's Christ-centered curriculum, fostering a love for literature, strong writing abilities, critical thinking, and effective communication.
- Integrate biblical principles and Scripture into English instruction, helping students analyze texts through a Christian perspective and discern truth in literature and media.
- Create a classroom atmosphere filled with the presence of God, where students feel safe to grow academically, emotionally, and spiritually, modeling prayer, worship, and dependence on the Holy Spirit.
- Assess student progress through assignments, projects, discussions, and evaluations; provide timely, constructive feedback to support mastery and improvement.
- Serve as a spiritual mentor and positive Christian role model, investing in students' lives to encourage their faith journey, pray with and for them, and guide them toward a deeper relationship with Jesus Christ.
- Collaborate with fellow teachers, administrators, and parents to support the school's mission of holistic discipleship and academic excellence.
- Participate in school-wide spiritual activities, including chapel services, prayer meetings, and service opportunities, contributing to a Spirit-filled community.
- Maintain professional development in both pedagogy and biblical studies to remain effective in ministry and teaching.
- Ability to assist in other school activities such as musical, times of worship, or other elective classes, is also a plus.

The successful candidate will be a born-again believer, baptized in the Holy Spirit, actively involved in a local Spirit-filled church, and passionate about seeing young people transformed by the power of God's Word and presence.

This is a part-time position reporting to the School Principal, Dr. Peck. Competitive salary and benefits commensurate with experience.

We invite applicants who feel called by God to this ministry to apply.
