

Mini Me

You can't take your full-size bath and beauty products on the plane, but there's no need to go without: These TSA-friendly versions will have your family looking and smelling as fresh as they do at home.

BY DALEY QUINN

This four-in-one tool includes two razors, a water spray bottle and a moisturizing shave bar.

It may look petite, but this deodorant does a full-size job protecting against odor and wetness.

A twofer lip and cheek tint.

This micro eye palette has four matte and four shimmer shades. Some colors can even do triple duty as brow filler and eyeliner.
