I was a day-of-coordinator skeptic, thinking that I could just delegate all of the tasks.

- ELIZABETH B.

"And although I could have delegated all of the tasks, hiring a day-of coordinator was definitely one of the best things we spent money on. Our planner walked us through every minute of the day, connected with our vendors, helped us make decisions we didn't know we had to make, and easily accommodated our unique requests. Her great attention to detail (she counted every chair, at every table), calm demeanor, and thoughtfulness were instrumental in making our wedding care-free and memorable. We'd definitely recommend working with Simply Elegant."
