

Rachelle Gehman has worked as a psychic medium for over 10 years, and still sees clients regularly. As a niece of the world-renowned psychic medium Reverend Anne Gehman, She was mentored by her aunt at a young age to utilize her gifts naturally.

Rachelle is a keynote speaker and a regular speaker at many events around the US. She speaks and holds workshops on many spiritual topics, including expanding your awareness of universal consciousness, meditation, and how to develop your mediumship naturally. She is an author of the “Heartfelt Medium, How to Develop Your Mediumship Naturally,” and can be found on Amazon and at Barnes and Noble. She has developed a corresponding workbook for her students attending her workshops. She also hosts a Podcast called “The Heartfelt Medium,” found on Spotify, Apple Podcasts and other platforms.

Before moving fully into her gift of mediumship, Rachelle spent over 30 years in business development, helping clients with custom services, strategies, and solutions to bring new concepts to market. Rachelle works with business clients to impact change by guiding business professionals to consider adding spiritual principles to their daily life.

Rachelle is passionate about how to de-mystify psychic mediumship and empower people to establish their own relationship and connection with spirit. Rachelle is currently booking several speaking engagements a year. Working with Spiritualism Principles, she teaches students to work with universal and spiritual law, and explains it in a way that it is easy for everyone to understand, so everyone can start building a solid foundation of their own spiritual practice.

Rachelle strives remain humble and honored to serve everyone seeking spirit with guidance and wisdom. Through her work, her goal is to open hearts, and help her clients gain a connection with their own spiritual loving self. Through honesty, integrity, and unconditional love, it is Rachelle’s hope to augment everyone’s path toward healing and finding peace, and true joy.
