PREPARING FOR RAPID INCREASE

By Jonathan Shuttlesworth

God Uses Common People for Great Assignments

Then the angel of the Lord came and sat beneath the great tree at Ophrah, which belonged to Joash of the clan of Abiezer. Gideon son of Joash was threshing wheat at the bottom of a winepress to hide the grain from the Midianites. The angel of the Lord appeared to him and said, “Mighty hero, the Lord is with you!” “Sir,” Gideon replied, “if the Lord is with us, why has all this happened to us? And where are all the miracles our ancestors told us about? Didn’t they say, ‘The Lord brought us up out of Egypt’? But now the Lord has abandoned us and handed us over to the Midianites.” Then the Lord turned to him and said, “Go with the strength you have, and rescue Israel from the Midianites. I am sending you!”
- Judges 6:11-14

God didn’t rescue the Israelites. God raised someone up to rescue them in His power. That happened in the Old Covenant, and in the New Covenant we have the power of the Holy Spirit living within us.

Don’t get bogged down by excuses.

“I’m too young.”
“I’m too old.”
“I don’t have a degree.”

That kind of thinking almost kept Gideon from becoming a Bible Hero that we still talk about several thousand years later. He thought God picked the wrong guy. He was the lowest son, of the lowest family, in the lowest tribe in all of Israel. It didn’t matter! God chose him.

Don’t Just Move, Move Quickly

There’s a zeal that comes with an instruction from God, and if you don’t act immediately the zeal dissipates.

I could not write the books I wrote five years ago right now. The zeal is gone. I couldn’t start this church right now. That’s gone. I have a zeal about the property we acquired. I have a zeal to erect a new church building, but if I let it drag on for nine years, there won’t be any zeal left. I’d be on heart medication with a stint from all the pressure to get it done. Not only does God expect you to move quickly, but He also provides divine energy for you to move quickly.

I’m trying to show you a secret. God moves with the movers. He doesn’t sit with the sitters. I flew to Fort Worth the same night the Lord spoke to me about starting a church there. When I arrived, I announced the church the same night. I believe in planning, I just don’t believe in sitting still while I do it. I planned on the drive to the airport and on the plane to Texas. I called Pastor Rodney. I called another pastor who has multiple campuses that aren’t near each other. I asked them how to best tackle what God’s called me to do.

Plan on the move.

You know the saying, ‘Four months between planting and harvest.’ But I say, wake up and look around. The fields are already ripe for harvest. - John 4:35

Quit moving slowly. The above scripture is a poetic way of saying, “put your foot on the accelerator and drive.” God gave me a plane, so I decided to use it to do something no one’s ever heard of before. I preached in two cities on the same day, multiple times to start the year. I surprised people each night by popping up between Pittsburgh and Fort Worth unannounced. God gave me tools to do it, so I did it. Instead of being afraid of the cost, I made the decision to step out and do something no one’s ever done before. God honors forward movement.

I’m not someone who just talks about increase, I’m moving in increase. You can talk about possessing the land from a 40-seat church that you’ve been in for 20 years, but there’s no anointing in that message. You don’t believe what you’re saying. If you have a small church, make it a big church. If you only have 30 people, go round up more people. Physically round up the people and bring them in. Start a bus ministry and get them on the bus. Go out and do it. Harvest the people, harvest the money. Follow up on contracts.

As a business owner, there may be times when you’re under-qualified or understaffed to complete a job. Go for it anyway. Move forward and watch God honor your faithful forward progression.

IT’S TIME TO RUN!

Spare No Expense

Too many Christians find reasons to shrink back from God’s best!

“Sing, O childless woman, you who have never given birth! Break into loud and joyful song, O Jerusalem, you who have never been in labor. For the desolate woman now has more children than the woman who lives with her husband,” says the Lord.” - Isaiah 54:1

Enlarge the place of thy tent, and let them stretch forth the curtains of thine habitations: spare not, lengthen thy cords, and strengthen thy stakes. - Isaiah 54:2

Verse two takes it to the material realm: enlarge your house, build an addition, spread out your home, spare no expense. Enlarge the place of thy tent. Let them stretch forth the curtains of thy inhabitations. Get this in your spirit, spare no expense. This ministry is not prayerful and careful, we’re prayerful and aggressive because the Bible says to spare no expense. I’ve role modeled this for you the best I can. Lengthen your tent cords, expand your homes, spare no expense. Go for it. I don’t want to be 80 years old, sitting on a porch and thinking, ‘I wonder what would’ve happened if I did what God told me to do with all my might.’

When you speak of small dreams that don’t inspire anyone, help is scarce, but when you start talking about crazy, big dreams, people will rally behind you. I pray every person reading this will make divine moves this year. I pray they’re the type of divine moves that put you on the radar. God is going to turn regional businesses into national businesses, and national businesses into multinational businesses.

MAKE ROOM!

Stretch forth your tents, lengthen thy courts, spare no expense. The blessing of Abraham is on your life. What are you afraid of?

Declare this: I have nothing to worry about.

If God opened the door, He knows all the costs associated with the door He opened. That's why I'm flying to Texas. I have a funny feeling God didn't give me that plane to hangar it. I'm going to fly. I'm going to fly it to you. I'm going to use, well, what I've been given. If I'm given a plane, I'm going to fly around and preach.

I was scheduled to go to San Diego at the end of January, so I decided to add Reno and Phoenix to the trip. Why not, I have the plane to do it. Spare no expense! Stop trying to save God money when he said spare no expense. When you get the money flowing in the direction of Kingdom expansion your money will never run dry.

Prepare and Make Room for Your Increase

Prepare to stretch forth your tents and enlarge the place of your habitation. Cut all the believing talk. Act. Your actions prove what you believe. I didn't believe to start a church in Fort Worth. I started one.

You don't hear anybody talk like that except in the impoverished Christian world, "We're believing to start eight churches." Start 'em! Go find eight places right now. Get eight people in there. Lease it. Do the deal and announce that service is starting in 90 days and watch what happens.

Or you can sit around, plan everything and watch how long it takes you. God doesn't work like that.

People disguise their unbelief as believing and praying. Men often use prayer as a refuge to dodge the action of faith.

The Bible says in Amos 9:13, Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, that the plowman shall overtake the reaper, and the treader of grapes him that soweth seed; and the mountains shall drop sweet wine, and all the hills shall melt.

Any mistake I make, I'm going to make moving too fast, and spending too much money in pursuit of my assignment. But in operating that way, there hasn't been any mistakes because God rewards swift obedience. We'll spare no expense to make a great church. We will always get the best of everything: the best sound, the best musicians, the best equipment, and the best cameras. Some churches have live streams that look like they're filming it with a deer stand camera. A ring doorbell has better footage than most church live streams. They're sparing expense.

We're in the era of rapid advancement. Patrick, the person who runs our ministry finances, called me at the end of the year to tell me that we were approaching 50 full-time employees. Once we hit 50 full-time employees, by law we have to purchase insurance for every employee. It's an additional $12,000 per month cost, almost $150,000 per year. The natural thing to do would be to institute a hiring freeze to keep us below 50 employees, but that's shrinking back. I won't shrink back.

People take little baby steps toward their little, tiny goals.

In Isaiah 54:2, God didn't say make little, tiny goals. He said, enlarge the place of your tent. Let them stretch forth the curtains of thine habitation. He was talking to His people when He told them to build a bigger house, make moves forward, and spare no expense.

Declare it: I will spare no expense.

Don't Hesitate, Be Aggressive

Something good is going to happen to you! Decide to keep overflowing. Keep moving forward.

But we are not of those who draw back to perdition, but of those who believe to the saving of the soul. - Hebrews 10:39

You'll live a small life if you avoid risk. Joshua and Caleb are Bible heroes because they had a different spirit. Even though there were giants in the land, and in the natural it was risky, they decided if the Lord is with them, they'd take it just as He said. May that same spirit of faith come alive in you today in Jesus' name.

Declare this: I won't shrink back. I'll go forward.

Go forward. Make your mistakes going forward and you won't make many. If you do, God will smooth it out as you continue moving forward. He honors forward movement. Make the decision to come up higher today, in Jesus' name!

REVIVAL TODAY NEW AIRCRAFT

ACCELERATING THE GOSPEL TO THE WORLD

Miracle!

When Jeffrey Epstein had a plane for the sole purpose of flying the world's elite to his private island to molest children, the world was silent. When men and women of God use the blessing of the Lord to obtain aircraft to fulfill The Great Commission and preach the Gospel to the world, they're met with outrage and media scrutiny. I refuse to be ashamed of the blessings God has given me. I'm going to proclaim it boldly and with gratitude, and I'm going to teach others how to obtain it.

Revival Today Church is a local church with a national vision. We currently have two locations in Pittsburgh, PA and Fort Worth, TX and we're just getting started. This plane is simply a necessary tool to accomplish the work God's called us to do. It's only the beginning of what God is doing to shake this nation.

As Fortune 500 companies begin to sell their assets, The Church will be ready to buy them to advance God's Kingdom in the Earth!

Roger Stone joined Pastor Jonathan in Pittsburgh, PA for Check the News on February 23rd in front of a live studio audience. If you haven't watched it, it's worth heading to the Revival Today app to view the episode in its entirety.

Roger weighed in on the upcoming election and Trump's road to 270 electoral votes. He also provided compelling insight into the likelihood of Trump's running mate and broke down the crisis at our southern border. However, his most powerful and enlightening input involves his personal encounter with Jesus Christ, and the miracle he experienced in the face of relentless and unwarranted persecution from the federal government.

What do you do when you're awoken by two dozen SWAT FBI agents wielding automatic weapons, who have been sent to arrest you based on manufactured evidence of Russian collusion? His only way to avoid dying in a prison cell was to agree to provide false testimony against his 45-yearlong friend, Donald Trump, or so it seemed. With no hopes of a fair trial, Roger was depressed, anxious and becoming unhinged.

When there seemed to be no way out, God sent Roger a lifeline in the form of Pastor Randy Coggins. Pastor Coggins took Stone to meet with Franklin Graham in Florida. Graham agreed to Roger's request to put in a good word with the President on his behalf. However, his ultimate advice was to give his burden to Jesus Christ. Later that day, he attended Graham's revival meeting where he gave his life to Jesus. He left the field confident that everything would work in his favor, despite a completely hindered defense and a crippling gag order issued by a corrupt judge.

The following Monday, Stone received a break in his case and ultimately received a full, unconditional pardon from the President. His circumstances changed from uncertain death by Covid-infested prison, to living to tell of the goodness of God in the land of the living. Stone told of several other life-saving miracles both him and his wife have experienced since he accepted Jesus into his heart.

He never thought he would become a person who regularly attends church and reads his Bible every morning and night, yet he opened his Bible to Deuteronomy 31:6 to share aloud the scripture he reads twice a day.

Be strong and of good courage, do not fear nor be afraid of them; for the Lord your God, He is the One who goes with you. He will not leave you nor forsake you.
