

Madre Nuestra

Madre Nuestra

Our Mother

You who are with us,

Ours because you are all of us.

You are not sanctified, but sacred yes,

Like the mountains, the ocean,

The moon, the rainbow, the butterflies,

Laughter and human bodies.

Woman is your name,

A simple and beautiful name!

Come with us to the reign of life,

And together let us do our will

Here, on earth, today!

Let us attain and share today and always

Our spiritual bread

And forgive ourselves

For all things except our responsibility.

And lead us into all temptations

That will build our dreams and hopes

And in this way

Together, strong and free,

Let us move away from all evil.
