Purple Passage

Site White
SW 7070

 I suggest that we use Purple Passage, as it has some silver undertones, and would also make the space feel less small than the other two purple colors. The Site White is like an almost-white Grey color to use, and true white will balance all of the colors.*

ACCENT WALLS.

*For the accent walls with wallpaper, we should go for a bold black and white print, which will make the space a little playful and a little posh at the same time. It will break up the purple, wood and grey very nicely, and silver will look amazing with it.

*Another option is all white TEXTURED wall tiles like in the last photo. They are absolutely stunning in person.

*I could ALSO do a custom black and white abstract pattern that looks like mouth X-Rays, which is what the third one over remotely reminds me of.

FRONT DESK.

*Front desk design with half metal and half wood, and metal offset logo.
