

JENNA and OWEN

11.05 EDITORIALY ——— INSPIRED 2024

JENNA AND OWEN CHICK'S WEDDING EMBRACED THE WARMTH AND INTIMACY OF A MODERN CELEBRATION, DESIGNED TO FEEL LIKE AN ELEGANT DINNER PARTY IN A STUNNING LIVING AND DINING ROOM WORTHY OF ARCHITECTURAL DIGEST. WITH RICH, MOODY TONES AND PERSONALIZED DETAILS, THE DAY BALANCED COZY SOPHISTICATION WITH STRIKING DESIGN TO CREATE AN UNFORGETTABLE EXPERIENCE.

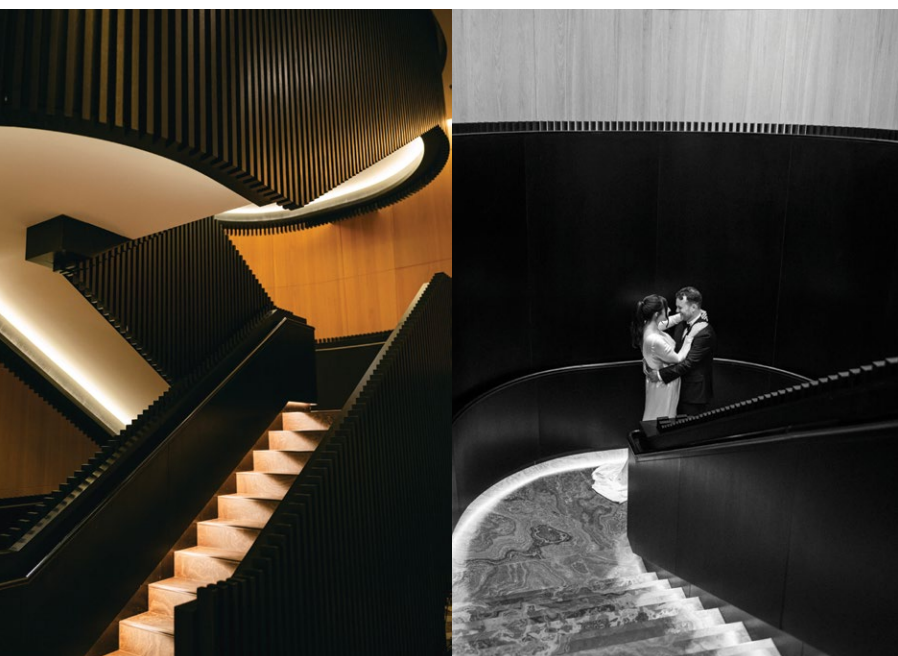

Jenna and Owen Chick's love story began years ago at Western University, introduced by mutual friends. After parting ways, they naturally reconnected in the fall of 2019, just before the pandemic, quickly picking up where they left off. Both from the same hometown and sharing overlapping social circles, their relationship blossomed with ease. After five years together, Owen designed an engagement ring using a beautiful stone from Jenna's grandmother's ring, thoughtfully collaborating with Jenna's best friend throughout the process. He proposed quietly one Friday evening at their Toronto home—catching Jenna by surprise, especially since their usual Friday nights at home were typically a low-key routine.

Their wedding weekend was a carefully curated celebration of warmth, intimacy, and modern sophistication. Full wedding planning—including the welcome party and goodbye brunch—was managed by Muse Event Co., led by Ellie Eccleton. Held at the sleek and stylish Park Hyatt Toronto, the festivities began with a chic, Vogue-inspired rehearsal dinner at Sofia in Yorkville, followed by a rooftop welcome party overlooking the city skyline. The next morning, Jenna and her bridesmaids enjoyed a relaxed start, wearing matching PJs and sharing soft glam, laughter, and champagne.

Jenna wore two stunning gowns by Katherine Tash Bridal. She began in the romantic "Jules" gown, paired with Dior J'Adore lace slingback heels visible through a dramatic side slit. Owen wore a custom tuxedo paired with Mont Blanc cufflinks.

FIRST LOOK

The couple's first look took place on the iconic staircase of the PARK HYATT TORONTO. It was a quiet, intimate moment before they strolled through Yorkville for portraits.

SURREAL STILLNESS

The ceremony was a moody, romantic affair featuring rich chocolate-brown draping, candlelit warmth, and custom floral installations by BLUSH AND BLOOM.

The eight-foot-tall custom seating chart was designed to match the dance floor vinyl.

“Guests received personalized envelopes with their names and table numbers, each containing a handwritten note that made everyone feel truly special.” —Jenna Chick, Bride

EDITORIAL INSPO

The reception at PARK HYATT TORONTO was thoughtfully designed to evoke the warmth and intimacy of an elegant dinner party at home, channeling the sophisticated interiors found in Architectural Digest. A custom vinyl dance floor inspired by Italian marble anchored the space, creating a chic and editorial-worthy focal point for the evening's festivities.

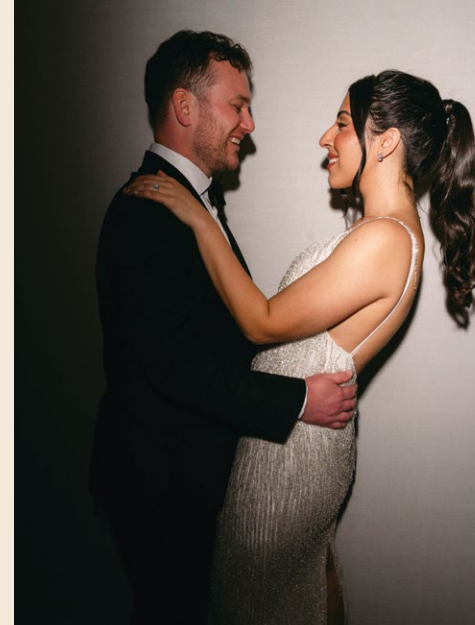

"The custom Italian marble-inspired dance floor was the perfect centerpiece, grounding the space with elegance and modern flair."

VIBRANT NIGHT

Guests entered the reception to discover an inviting atmosphere illuminated by soft candlelight and lush floral installations. Thoughtfully arranged lounge seating surrounded the dance floor, encouraging guests to mingle and relax. After speeches, Jenna returned in her second gown — the sleek "Chloe" by KATHERINE TASH — timed perfectly with an energizing performance by Lebanese drummers, setting the stage for a vibrant night of celebration and dancing.

After their unforgettable celebration, Jenna and Owen enjoyed a multi-destination honeymoon across Greece and Italy, exploring Mykonos, Milos, Paros, Crete, Taormina, Palermo, and Rome. The couple resides in Toronto, where Jenna works in real estate and Owen is in sales.
