Location Portrait Sessions:

What are location portrait sessions?

These sessions are all done outdoors. Somewhere you can use the environment around you as a stunning backdrop for your portrait session.

Who are these sessions for?

These sessions are perfect for your family, extended family, children, maternity, couple or general portrait sessions, including modeling and fashion. I do photograph newborns in this setting, but the baby will need to be in someone's arm's if the baby cannot sit on their own.

What do you need to wear?

I always recommend neutral tones for any session and steering away from pure black or pure white. I have a 'What to Wear' guide to help you select your outfit choice/s.

Can I have my extended family?

Yes! I love photographing big extended families.

What is the best time for a location session?

Late afternoon is best for location sessions, but this also depends on the location. We will chat about time of day when booking in your session to ensure we have the best lighting for your location.

What if it rains or one of us is sick?

If it's not raining too heavy and you are happy for some images in the rain, or under umbrellas, then it's all steam ahead. If it is torrential, then we will reschedule. Same with sickness. If anyone in your family is unwell, please let me know so we can reschedule.

What if my kid/s get cranky?

I am pretty good with cranky kids and partners (lol). So if someone is out of sorts, we can either reschedule or keep photographing the crankiness (always a fun set of images to have). Our third option is to wait out the tantrum, and I can continue photographing other aspects while this is happening. Believe it or not, crankiness can make for a true family session!

How to book in a session

You can contact me via email, phone, website or social media. We can then work out a date that suits and I will send you a session invoice. Once the non-refundable booking fee has been paid and digital agreement is signed, you will be officially booked in for your session. Contacts are below.
