

WEDDING FLOWERS CHECKLIST

While planning a wedding can feel daunting, being armed with as much information as possible will help you approach the conversation with confidence. There are so many things to think about throughout the day. From the bridal party and ceremony to the cocktail hour and reception, it's easy to forget the little details! Here's our Wedding Flower Checklist to help you imagine where flowers are possible, making the design process a little easier.

BRIDAL PARTY FLOWERS

A note regarding personal flowers: Flowers are a beautiful gesture and gift to honor the special people in your life, but it is ultimately up to you who to give flowers to. These are just prompts to show you the possibility of who needs flowers, not a list of requirements. More and more of our couples are choosing to forego boutonnieres and corsages and instead focus on other areas to decorate.

- Bride's bouquet / floral crowns / floral hair comb
- Bride's toss bouquet
- Maid of honor & bridesmaids' bouquets / floral crowns
- Flower girl's basket, rose petals / floral crown / mini bouquet
- Bridal party hair flowers
- Groom's boutonniere
- Best man & groomsmen's boutonnieres
- Ring bearer's boutonniere
- Attendants, ushers & officiant's boutonnieres
- Fathers, grandfathers & brothers' boutonnieres
- Mothers, grandmothers & sisters' corsages/ Petite bouquets/ hair flowers

CEREMONY FLOWERS

- Entryway flower arrangements
- Church altar flower arrangements
- Signing table flower arrangement
- Pew or chair flower arrangements
- Aisle decorations
- Toss petals for guests
- Flowers for arch / canopy / pergola / chuppah / other Installations

RECEPTION FLOWERS

- Cocktail table flower arrangements
- Lounge area flower arrangements
- Place card or seating chart flower arrangements
- Guestbook table & card box table flower arrangements
- Bar flower arrangements
- Centerpieces- garlands, low bowls, tall stands, etc!
- Sweetheart or head table flower arrangements
- Bride & groom's chair flowers
- Buffet-table/food station flower arrangements
- Wedding cake flowers
- Cake table flower arrangements
- Menu/place setting flowers
- Welcome sign flowers
- Seating Chart flowers
- Installations over Bar, Dance Floor, Head table
- Photobooth Flowers

Make a list of the quantities of each item you will need. If you have any inspiration photos that spark your creativity, show them to your florist as well!

For the most successful, unique floral designs, give your florist some freedom. We love to impress our clients by thinking outside the box and finding something individual and unexpected, just for you!

Finally, enjoy the process. Flowers are the finishing touch that brings all your carefully curated details together. We hope you love the process!

