CUSTOM CURATION |

Box contents that are uniquely you

Putting a custom curated touch on the details inside your box is what will make them stand out to your guests! A standard box contains a his and her snack (both sweet and salty), two branded water bottles, and a printed itinerary. Adding custom curated snacks that reference the location of your wedding, your love story, or unique details about you as a couple will keep your guests full and happy all wedding weekend long!

ITINERARY INSERTS |

Be sure your guests know every detail!

Make sure all of the important details of your wedding weekend are in one place for your guests with a welcome insert! Welcome inserts are offered in a variety of sizes to match your box and your style. We will talk about the information that you need to communicate to your guests, and design an itinerary and information insert to match!

BRANDED WATER BOTTLES |

Included in every box!

A guest favorite! All custom boxes include two bullet water bottles wrapped with custom labels. This is a fun place to add your wedding logo or monogram, furry friend, or other wedding details. Brides also grab extras of these water bottles for other wedding weekend events, to have while getting ready, or stock their own fridge for when they return home as newlyweds!
