

SPEAKER + ENCOURAGER

Katie Dilse introduction 2020

Our speaker today knows your work matters. Your story has significance. And your life contributes to the world. In real ways. Simple. And unseen.

Katie loves all things genuine. Like eye contact. And following your intuition. Chasing truth. Sharing lessons. And awakening the soul.

Katie is a dreamer. A small town, rural North Dakota farmer with a great big vision.

She is a Country Woman of the Year finalist, she served on the Federal Reserve Bank of Minneapolis Advisory Council, and she was named Top 40 under 40 by the Business Watch Magazine.

You are about to hear secrets to discover value in the everyday mystery of 24-7.

The small victories worth celebrating.
And the big picture worth seeking.
