ALEXA FRANKOVITCH

your senior portraits should be as fun as you are.

This is a huge moment to celebrate - and it should be done in YOUR style. Playing your instrument and wearing your favorite band tee? On the field or court in your jersey? At your favorite diner or coffeeshop or in the theater? Exploring the city? In your backyard with your dog? The choices are endless. All that matter is that it feels like you. No stiff studio props or weird poses here (unless that's your vibe).

I know there are a LOT of photographers to choose from and the fact that you've decided to consider me is an absolute honor. Now, let's have some fun.

KIND WORDS

“I'M A LITTLE CAMERA SHY AND I DON'T REALLY LIKE POSING FOR PHOTOS. WITH ALEXA'S "IN THE MOMENT" STYLE, I DIDN'T HAVE TO DO THAT AND SHE WAS ABLE TO CAPTURE MANY NATURAL AND RELAXED PHOTOS.”

“SHE MADE POSING FOR PICTURES EASY, AND ALWAYS HAD GREAT SUGGESTIONS WHEN I WAS OUT OF IDEAS. I'M SUPER AWKWARD BEHIND THE CAMERA BUT A) YOU WOULD NEVER BE ABLE TO TELL WITH HER ABILITIES, AND B) SHE MADE IT SO SIMPLE.”

A woman with long, wavy brown hair is standing in a field of yellow flowers, likely Black-eyed Susans, during the golden hour of sunset. She is wearing a light blue, sleeveless, backless dress with a lace-up detail at the waist. She is looking back over her shoulder towards the camera with a slight smile. The background is a soft, out-of-focus field of flowers and trees, with the sun low on the horizon, creating a warm, golden glow.
