OUR STORY

In the early 70's, John Reaves was known for his legendary smoked hams and turkeys. His food was so loved people started asking if they could buy his barbecue.

He soon realized, being in front of his smoker providing great food for loved ones was where he was happiest. So in 1976, he turned his passion into his career and opened his first restaurant.

With over forty years of serving the Dallas community, Smokey's delicious hickory-smoked barbecue and warm, friendly service live on.
