

ABOUT US

Talulah, meaning 'running water' in Native American, is alive and everchanging. We are here because being part of a community makes us happy and we're pretty sure it makes others feel good too. We are also really passionate about interesting food and banging coffee. We're always striving to improve what we do and how you enjoy it. We are here for a long time and a good time, so we make seasonal products that not only nourish but also inspire. We hope you enjoy!

FUNCTIONS AND CATERING

We are always keen to host a great event or make sure you're well fed and caffeinated somewhere else. Please, use our contact page on our website to enquire about your next function.

ON THE WALLS

There are some bloody creative people in this town. We connect with local emerging artists to give them a chance to showcase their creativity to the world.

Have a look around and buy something, we dont take any commission! All proceeds go to the artist.
