Hi, Dana --

When you have time, can we get a copy of the NDA involving the data center? Some viewers were asking me what does it actually protect?

Zero rush. And I understand if you have to black out the company name.

"Dan Hanger, has a copy of the NDA agreements that they signed been published? I think the content is very important. Does it just protect a company's proprietary information, which is valid, or does it go further and effect the elected official's ability scrutinize the project?"
