Our STORY

With a name inspired by the culminating exercise that all Special Forces soldiers must go through to earn the coveted Green Beret,

Pineland Property Group is rooted in community and its service to its members.

The name and mission behind Pineland Property Group (PPG) has deep meaning for the team. Ashley Donovan, a businesswoman with an entrepreneurial spirit, along with her husband Mark, a Special Forces officer with a vast background in leadership, leaned on their roots to cultivate a community-minded real estate firm. With the expertise of Kristina Webster, a Special Forces military spouse with almost a decade of experience in real estate, and Jessica Marsh, a North Carolina native with an impressive 20 years in the industry, PPG went from vision board to reality.

Charity, servitude, and positive client relationships are paramount. The team at PPG are seasoned real estate brokers, equipped to handle any market, and provide a best-in-class real estate experience. Whether it is moving their military friends and clients across states and continents, or helping investors and locals find their perfect home, the skilled agents at Pineland Property Group has your back!

From vision board to reality.
