BRIDAL MAKEUP 2026

About me

A passion for beauty, romantic stories and the arts has been an essential part of me since childhood. I was a real dreamer, wandering magical lands of fairies, princesses, dragons, vampires and heroes in my mind. Growing up I studied art history, worked in creative jobs, tried my hand at many things, but deep down I remained a daydreaming little girl obsessed with fantasy, romance and dreams.

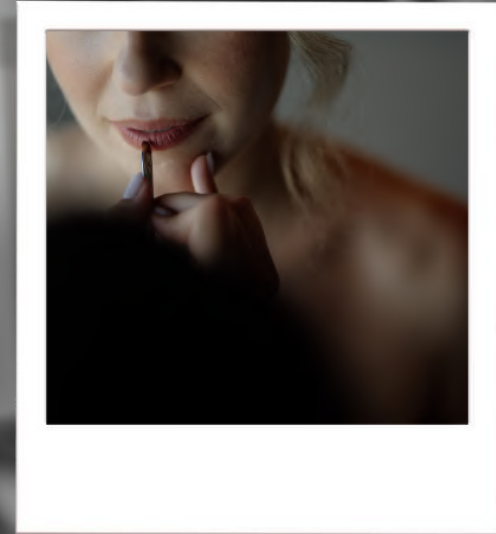

For me, weddings are the manifestation of these fairytales in a cynical world based on rationality. My brides will always have a special place in my heart. It is the biggest honor, the trust with which these wonderful women allow me to be a part of such an important day.

HOW DO I WORK?

My basic principle is that I don't let my guests go until I feel that they are absolutely satisfied with my work. Before anything else, I always question my brides thoroughly about their preferences, their ideas and the wedding, so that I have as accurate a picture as possible of who they are and when they feel most beautiful in their own skin.

My style is all about wearability, softness and being natural. I like to bring out the best in my guests, in a way that when they look in the mirror, they see an enhanced, but familiar version of themselves.

BRIDAL MAKEUP

When it comes to wedding makeup, it's important that it lasts, and neither the weather, nor tears, nor kisses from relatives can wear it down. On top of that, it's perhaps even more important that you feel confident and comfortable wearing it.

While I do my best to make sure your makeup is extra long-lasting and perfect, it's not a mask that we put on and it doesn't move. Naturally, that doesn't mean it's going to come off of your face by the end of the night, but every now and then it might need a little freshening-up, which is perfectly normal.

That's why, on the wedding day, I always put together a little package for my brides, with lipstick, powder and a few other tools that they can use to maintain their makeup during the evening.

BRIDAL PACKAGES

The price of each package includes individual lashes, the groom's touch-up, a small makeup refreshment kit and a skincare brochure that I have created specifically for my brides. Other makeup applications beyond the trial and wedding day (e.g. for engagement shoots, creative shoots) can be arranged according to the current pricing for casual makeups.

IMPORTANT INFO

I can keep the date of the wedding for up to 1 week after sending the quote. You can finalise your booking by paying a deposit of 30 000 HUF. I will also send you a data form, that I kindly ask you to fill out as soon as possible, to help me with my work.

The price of the packages includes the deposit of 30 000 HUF and 35 000 HUF for the trial session, the latter to be paid at the time of the trial session.

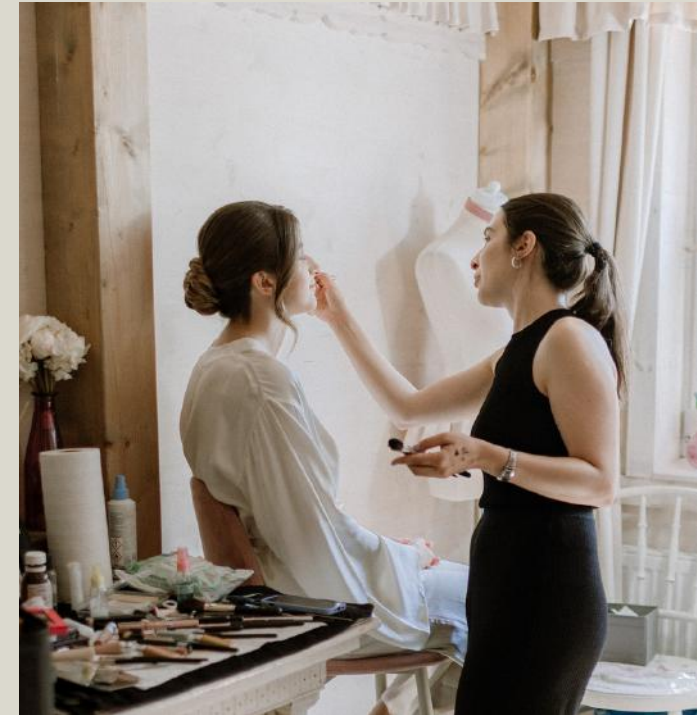

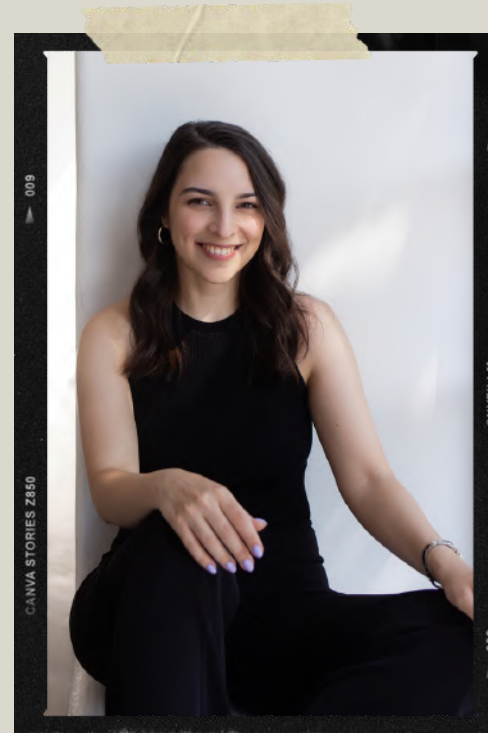

In order to avoid any complications on the wedding day, the remaining amount should be paid the week of the wedding, but can also be settled in cash on the day of the wedding if it's more convenient.
