

CV Advisory Services

With 25+ years' experience in hiring high performing individuals for software and technology vendors across the UK, Europe and North America, Adam Tully has a wealth of knowledge to support your employment search and enable you to create an impactful CV and LinkedIn profile.

Your CV

- Is your marketing tool and not your autobiography or a cut and paste of your job description.
- Should demonstrate and position your suitability for the role and create points for conversation during interview.

I can create a formidable and standout CV for you.

Creating your CV

When applying for a new job, it is not about how many years' experience you have but rather what you have done with your experience and skills that truly matter. Therefore, your CV should provide specific examples of major comparable accomplishments, effectively aligning past successes with the tasks of the role you are applying for. When reviewing the CV, the hiring manager wants the successful hire to demonstrate successes in areas relating directly to the job requirements as this will be the foundation for future success.

How will I create your formidable and standout CV?

- Introduction Zoom Call to discuss the methodology and structures to how your CV is created to position your experience, skills and achievements, and thus creating a formidable CV
- Your CV is created by firstly conducting a 30-minute interview.
- When writing your CV, I will not use templates, repeat phrases or AI software. I will create a personalised and formidable CV to best highlight your experience and skills, while aligning them to your achievements and successes.
- Once the CV had been delivered, we will schedule a 15-minute Zoom Call to discuss the CV

Working with Adam

Adam will provide a distinct perspective to your CV. His consultative approach goes beyond formatting and key word optimization. By understanding your ambitions and highlighting your strengths and showcase skills, he will position and highlight your experience, accomplishments, achievements, and skills to create an impactful CV.

Recommendation:

"For anyone looking to improve the structure, flow and general impact of their CV, the advisory services provided by Adam at JIE Search are second to none. Most importantly they generate results. I can't recommend Adam highly enough."

"I have been struggling to find a job and Adam has out of the kindness of his heart offered to help me fix my CV in a bid to land more roles/opportunities. After struggling for 7 months to find a job, his advice has been great and my CV is now more reflective of who I am and my achievements."
