

OPEN HOUSE

BEAUTIFUL THINGS

WANT TO TALK?

E-MAIL ME AT EDITOR@HOUSEBEAUTIFUL.COM.

▶ IF YOU'RE AN AVID READER OF House Beautiful, you know that I usually reserve these pages for casual design conversations. But this is an issue dedicated to shopping for the home, and I'm particularly passionate about elevating artisans—so it seemed obvious that we could put this real estate to better use. I asked these prolific designers, known for incorporating such pieces into their showrooms, stores, and spaces, to reveal their favorite makers in the hope that you'll discover something wonderful and new.

While we're at it, here's mine: Melina Kempf of Honey Lain Studios is a brilliant fashion stylist, so it's no wonder that the complex, almost kaleidoscopic pottery she creates feels like haute couture. —Joanna Saltz @josaltz

Bird Mugs, from $55. honey-lain-studios.myshopify.com

Barney Chair in Nutella Brown and Cream, $1,500. objectsforobjects.com

“Leonard Bessemer is an awesome carpenter and maker based in Los Angeles who does really fun, sculptural furniture called Objects for Objects.”

—Peti Lau @petilau_aristofreak

“Reminiscent of perfume bottles of times past, Brent Warr's piece is delicate, bold, and a functional piece of art.”

—Evan Millard @evandmillard

Margaret Side Table, $3,800. brentwarr.com

“I'm transfixed by Sylvie Saint-André Perrin's marbled surfaces. Her form of alchemy turns dinner plates into works of art!”

—David Stark @david_stark_design

Dish With Festoon in Marrakech. ateliersap.com

SALTZ: ALLIE HOLLOWAY; HAIR AND MAKEUP: NINA SORIANO; STYLIST: STEPHANIE TRICOLA/HONEY ARTISTS; CHAIR: LEONARD BESSEMER/OBJECTS FOR OBJECTS; DISH: AARON DELESIE; SIDE TABLE: KENDI AUSTINSON; MUGS: MELINA KEMPF; ILLUSTRATIONS: AGATA NOWICKA.

Small Seasonal Vased Fresh Flower Arrangement. $75. evefloralco.com

“Evelyn Streeter is a third-generation florist and grew up smelling roses in her family’s flower shop. I love the touch of wildness she adds to her arrangements.”
—O. Stephanie Beverly @twelve15_designstudio

“Charlie Dumais has mastered his ability to make the most incredible ceramic accessories, from exquisite lighting to a simple tray.”
—Analisse Taft @altforliving

Truro Lamp in Matte Black and Parchment, $2,200. dumaismade.com

“I’ve been working with Ootra for several years now. They are always ready to build something new or modify their designs to fit our preferences and our clients’ needs.”
—Tina Ramchandani @tinaramchandani

Bistro Table in Dyed Ash. ot-tra.com

“Kieu Tran’s ceramic sculptures are deeply personal and emotional. They conjure up different memories every time I look at them.”
—Dabito @dabito

Sculptures. studiokieu.com

“The technique Sweet Briar Beauty uses on their jacquard looms is fascinating. Their rugs are in many historic homes.”
—Anthony Baratta @tonybaratta

Sweet Briar Beauty Placemats. $40. familyheirloomweavers.com

“Jessica Clark handweaves beautiful baskets from willow, which they grow on their organic farm in New York. Willow naturally grows in a variety of colors and Jessica has an eye for how to arrange them in their designs.”
—Bunny Williams @bunnywilliamshome

Baskets. willowvale.farm

FLOWERS: ALEX DAVIS; LAMP: ALLEGRA ANDERSON; PLACEMATS: FHW TEXTILES LLC; BASKETS: JESSICA CLARK; SCULPTURES: DIANA ROTHBY; BISTRO TABLE: ETHAN HERRINGTON; ILLUSTRATIONS: AGATA NOWICKA