about me

Hi! I'm Sarah. I am a Tik Tok content creator, website designer, and performing artist passionate about personal & professional development, business, and the arts. I create casual video content (native to the platform) about networking, career development, planners, goals, organization, and good mental habits.

Unlike many Tik Tok creators, my account is very much a personal brand. There is no gimmick or joke -- it's just me, sharing about what I'm doing or learning about.
