WE ARE STARTING

REVIVAL TODAY CHURCH

By Jonathan Shuttlesworth

The clear leading of The Lord has taken me in a direction I never thought possible—not only will we be launching our new studio with capacity for a full audience—we will be launching a church. A church that honors the Holy Spirit. A church that wins souls. A church that makes no apologies, and feels no guilt for believing the Word of God. A church that is a blessing to your family and to this nation.

WHAT WILL MAKE REVIVAL TODAY CHURCH UNIQUE?

Revival Today Church Will Never Close

The Bible is clear: we should be meeting TOGETHER more (not less) as we see The Return of Christ approaching (Hebrews 10:15). Whether its COVID, whatever next plague Hell has up its foul sleeve, snow, tornadoes, fire, government mandate or nuclear war—the only person with permission to close RTC is Christ at The Rapture; not Fauci, the CDC, WHO, or anyone else.

Revival Today Church Will Operate in The Spirit of Christ and Totally Reject The Spirit of This World

If you felt punched in the stomach watching Christian leaders remain silent or even adopt the ideologies of Socialism and Critical Race Theory and/or close their sanctuaries for worship while opening for vaccine distribution; my promise to you is RTC will NEVER bend the Word of God to fit media narratives. Nor will we allow the world to use the credibility of the church to push their agenda.

A Local Church Dialed into the Global Body of Christ

Our 20 years of traveling evangelism will place a unique mark on Revival Today Church. Our relationship with leaders in the Body of Christ both in America and internationally will allow you to touch the world with your giving, while enjoying the ministry of top voices in our generation.

Revival Today Church Will be a Spiritual Church

You shouldn't have to send your teenagers to a summer camp to be changed by God's power. You shouldn't have to go on a retreat to get healed, and you shouldn't have to travel to a conference to feel the anointing. At RTC, the Holy Spirit will actually be welcome in the sanctuary on Sunday morning.

But, for those of you whose church turned into a liberal nightmare in 2020, I want to invite you to relocate and join us this fall. I would love to have you join us in Pittsburgh at Revival Today Church!

DON'T GIVE UP!

by Adalis Shuttlesworth

"But as for you, be strong and do not give up, for your work will be rewarded." — 2 Chr. 15:7

Look at how far you've come. You could have been dead right now, but God has kept you alive! Sometimes, in the busyness of life, we can forget the bigger picture. You were designed to make impact. You were created to live life more abundantly. You were formed so that you could reflect the image of God. The work of your hands is the sacrifice you'll present to God. Your obedience to God's will and Word determines the eternal destination of a multitude of people. Re-read that last sentence twice over. If you give up now, people will go to hell! The YOU that's alive and creating impact in this world is way better than a YOU that's dead and in heaven. This world is better off because you are here.

Don't allow yourself to be discouraged because things aren't happening as quickly as you want them to. Don't be tempted to throw in the towel and give up. I'll repeat what God said in Isaiah 41:10, "So do not fear, for I am with you; do not be dismayed, for I am your God."

I will strengthen you and help you; I will uphold you with my righteous right hand." You have the hand of God upholding you. When things seem like they're getting worse, rest easy. KNOW that your future is guaranteed. Jeremiah 29:11 says, "For I know the plans I have for you," declares the LORD, "plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future." That word 'future' there means an "expected end". God has given you an expected end! Do you see it?

Whenever you feel discouraged, think about your expected end. See yourself with that baby. Picture yourself with your spouse. Imagine yourself with all of your grand babies—strong and healthy in your old age. Think of all the ways you'll bless people when your bank account reaches millions of dollars. Meditate on all the souls you'll bring to heaven just because of your influence. Dream away the discouragement!

Galatians 6:9 says, "Let us not become weary in doing good, for at the proper time we will reap a harvest if we do not give up." Your harvest is due. Refuse to give up and quit. Deny the devil the power to intercept your thoughts. Speak out the Word of God louder than ever before! Prepare yourself for the greatest season of blessing you've ever had in Jesus' name!

COMMUNICATION IN MARRIAGE IS ABSOLUTELY INTEGRAL.

Twenty Secrets to an Unbreakable Marriage

By Jonathan & Adalis Shuttlesworth

Now, I know this might shock some people because it's usually the woman who wants to communicate and the man who finds it difficult. But for me, it was very difficult to vocalize how I felt about a situation. If I was upset, I would just say to myself, 'you know what, I'm just going to sweep this under the rug.'

Then I'd ignore it, and ignore it, and ignore it, not realizing that the issue was compounding.

Then one day, Jonathan walked up to me while I was doing what I do best—holding a grudge—and said, "you know, we're not going to go to bed angry with each other. It's biblical. You can't let the sun go down on your anger. So, we're going to sit here and we're going to talk."

For the first time, Ephesians 4:26 came to life. I had to initiate an action and open my mouth to communicate even when I was uncomfortable. I knew I could not let the sun go down on my anger. For the sake of your marriage, it's important to communicate effectively, even if you have to cry through it in the beginning.

Communication might also feel sacrificial to you because it can mean bearing your soul to your spouse. Do it anyway. Practice the art of communication because your spouse cannot read your mind.

I used to think if I slammed something, or shut the door hard enough, Jonathan would know I was upset. Now I know it's impossible for him to read between the lines! I had to communicate what bothered me. Only after I communicated effectively could we move forward.

I also realized that men, especially, need a clear picture of what women are dealing with or going through. This can be tough for us as women because sometimes our emotions are running like a roller coaster. We can't help it. It's the way God made us. There are going to be some moments where we'll cry or get angry. But, whatever the mood, communicate to the best of your ability. You will gradually get better at communicating; it's a wonderful skill!

Here's a communication tip: talking, yelling, and/or making remarks that drag the other person down is not communicating effectively.

Effective communication must be a means to an end. Open up your heart and ask, "what can we do to fix the situation?" Then seek a solution together.

If you find you're not feeling loved, ask yourself why. Then communicate. Open up to your spouse. Communicate, communicate, and communicate some more; the results will be worth the effort.

Power of Agreement

I'm the lady in the nursing home in Tucson who's believing God to get to Tampa. I've been stuck here for over five years. My husband completely abandoned me over a year ago after refusing to let me come back home.

I spoke to Jonathan on the broadcast during the October fast and he prayed in agreement with me. A few weeks ago, I was able to sow my largest seed and tithe to The River Church – a total of $400. I've been speaking the Word and praying in faith, knowing that God has always provided for me. Last week, I began to have a real urgency to get ready and that it was time – I even had the idea to charter a jet to get there! If God can do it for Jonathan then He can do it for me! Well, now my husband is selling the house and I will get $40,000! Hallelujah!

I will be moving to Tampa, starting River University in August, going to healing school, and getting out of this wheelchair! My daughter attended the River School of Worship, the River Bible Institute, and interned at the River Church. She now works for the ministry. I won't be living with her, but my 32-year-old son is coming with me and wants to go to RU as well!

It just keeps getting better and better – as Jonathan has taught me, only ups and ups, from strength to strength, and glory to glory! So I'm getting "Shuttlesworthed". And, if the charter company he uses works on this part of the country, I'd like their info. I believe God will get me a great deal either way!

I bless and thank your ministry for being there through my time of exile. The teaching and preaching of this ministry is second only to that of Dr. Rodney Howard-Browne!

Testimony by Ms. K

One day Jesus told his disciples a story to show that they should always pray and never give up.
