

Terms of Use

Last Modified: February 27, 2024

Welcome to The Dot Twin Cities. Please read these Terms of Use carefully before you start to use the Services (defined below).

These Terms of Use (“Terms of Use” or “Agreement”) apply to your use of our website thedottwincities.com (the “Website”), the network, products, or services (collectively, including the Website, our “Services”). These Terms of Use apply to anyone who accesses our Services, whether as guests or registered users (“you” or “User”), and is an agreement between you and The Dot Twin Cities (“The Dot,” “we,” or “us”).

By using our Services, or by clicking to accept or agree to the Terms of Use when this option is made available to you, you accept and agree to be bound and abide by the Terms of Use and our Privacy Policy, found on our Website, incorporated herein by reference. If you do not want to agree to these Terms of Use or the Privacy Policy, you must not access or use our Services.

1. Service Uses

The Dot Twin Cities is a non-profit corporation with a purpose to connect and support professional women in the workplace by conducting educational and informational programs, building a community of women across professions, and enabling all women to succeed in their profession. By taking part in our Services, there are some ground rules you must follow that are intended to protect The Dot community. If you do not agree to these terms, then you can choose to not use our Services.

Service Rules. You must use the Services only for lawful purposes and in accordance with the Terms of Use. You agree not to engage in any activity that is illegal or could harm the The Dot, our Services, or other Users. When using our Services, you are responsible for your interaction with others. For example, you must not do the following while using our Services:

- Harm others (including impersonating or attempting to impersonate The Dot, another User, or any other person or entity, including, without limitation, by using e-mail addresses or screen names associated with any of the foregoing; violating another’s rights or collecting anyone else’s personal information, including account names, from the Services; sending spam, chain letters, or other unsolicited communications).

- Use, copy, make derivatives of, distribute, or exploit our Services or any content available through our Services for any commercial or competitive purpose (including “scraping” to gather information or content; decompiling or reverse engineering our Services, or otherwise attempt to discover any source code or modify the Services; copying, imitating or using, in whole or in part, the look and feel of the Services (including but not limited to all page headers, custom graphics, button icons, and scripts); or disclose any benchmark or performance tests of the Subscription Services.)
- Attempt any technological attack (including using any automated system, including without limitation “robots,” “spiders,” “offline readers,” etc., to access the Services in a manner that sends more request messages to The Dot servers than a human can reasonably produce in the same period of time by using a conventional on-line web browser; interfering, or attempting to interfere with, our Services; compromising the system integrity or security or decipher any transmissions to or from the servers running the Service; bypassing measures we use to restrict access to our Services; accessing or deciphering any unauthorized content or transmissions; or uploading viruses, worms, or other harmful agents; taking any action that imposes, or may impose at our sole discretion an unreasonable or disproportionately large load on our infrastructure); or
- Use our Services for any fraudulent purpose or purpose prohibited by these Terms of Use, including our Content Standards, or any applicable federal, state, or local laws (including using any trademarks in any manner that might tarnish, disparage, or reflect adversely on The Dot; using the Services to support, incite, or promote discrimination, hostility, or violence; using any The Dot trademark or any variant thereof including misspellings as a domain name or as part of a domain name, as a metatag, keyword, or any other type of programming code or data; adopting or using, without our prior written consent, any word or mark which is similar to or likely to be confused with Company trademarks).

Eligibility. You must be 18 years old or older to use or access the Services. If your Account (as defined below) or access to our Services is discontinued by us due to your violation of these Terms of Use, you may not access or use our Services. This includes re-registering with us or accessing our Services through use of a different account name or otherwise. By using the Services, you represent and warrant that you have the full right, power, and authority to enter into this Agreement and to fully perform all of your obligations hereunder.

Network Accounts. To access some of our Services, you’ll need to create a Dot network account (“Account”). Your Account gives you access to the services and functionality that we may establish and maintain from time to time and in our sole discretion. We may maintain different types of accounts for different types of Users. Aside from the rights you have in your content as described below (“User Content”), your Account is owned by The Dot, which means you have no ownership or other rights in or to your Account.

When creating your Account, you must provide accurate and complete information. You are solely responsible for the activity that occurs on your Account, and you must keep your Account password secure. We encourage you to use “strong” passwords (passwords that use a combination of upper and lower case letters, numbers and symbols) with your Account. You may not allow any other party to access or use the Services with your Account. You must notify The Dot immediately of any breach of security or unauthorized use of your Account. The Dot shall not be liable for any losses caused by any unauthorized use of your Account.

You may control your User profile and how you interact with the Services by changing the settings in your Account. By providing The Dot your email address you consent to the use of your email address for any Services-related notice, including any notices required by law, in lieu of communication by postal mail. We may also use your email address to send you other messages, such as changes to features of the Services and special offers. If you do not want to receive such email messages, you may opt out or change your preferences in your settings page. Opting out may prevent you from receiving email messages regarding updates, improvements, or offers.

Account usernames are provided on a first-come, first-served basis and may not be offered for sale, sold, bought, solicited, or inactively held for future use. Inactive accounts may be renamed at any time without notification.

Interactions with other Users. You are solely responsible for your interactions with other Users. We are not liable for any interactions between you and other Users.

Changes to Our Services. We reserve the right to change our Services, including the availability of certain features and the pricing for our Services, at any time at our sole discretion and without notice.

2. Accessing the Services and Account Security

Access to Our Services. We reserve the right to permanently or temporarily terminate or suspend your access to the Services without notice and liability for any reason, including if in our sole determination you violate any provision of this Agreement, or for no reason. If your Account is terminated for any reason, you must obtain written authorization from Company prior to establishing another account. If you attempt to establish another Account without obtaining such authorization, The Dot may permanently ban you from the Service. You may not have more than one active Account at any time without the written consent of Company in each instance.

Registration. To access the Services, you may be asked to provide certain registration details or other information. It is a condition of your use of the Services that all the information you provide is correct, current and complete. You agree that all information you provide to register with the Services or otherwise is governed by our Privacy Policy, and you consent to all actions we take with respect to your information consistent with our Privacy Policy.

Account Security. If you choose, or are provided with, a username, password, or any other piece of information as part of our security procedures, you must treat such information as confidential, and you must not disclose it to any other person or entity. You also acknowledge that your account is personal to you and agree not to provide any other person with access the Services or portions of it using your username, password, or other security information. You agree to notify us immediately of any unauthorized access to or use of your username or password or any other breach of security. You also agree to ensure that you exit your Account at the end of each session. You should use particular caution when accessing your account from a public or shared computer so that others are not able to view or record your password or other personal information.

3. Intellectual Property Rights

General. The Services and its entire contents, features and functionality (including but not limited to all information, software, text, displays, images, video and audio, and the design, selection and arrangement thereof), are owned by The Dot, its licensors, or other providers of such material and are protected by applicable United States and international copyright, trademark, patent, trade secret, and other intellectual property or proprietary rights laws.

The Terms of Use permit you to use the Services for your personal, non-commercial use only. You must not access or use for any commercial purposes any part of the Services. You must not reproduce, distribute, modify, create derivative works of, publicly display, publicly perform, republish, download, store, or transmit any of the material from our Services, except as follows:

- Your computer may temporarily store copies of such materials in RAM incidental to your accessing and viewing those materials.
- You may store files that are automatically cached by your Web browser for display enhancement purposes.

- You may print or download one copy of a reasonable number of pages of the Services for your own personal, non-commercial use and not for further reproduction, publication, or distribution.
- If we provide desktop, mobile or other applications for download, you may download a single copy to your computer or mobile device solely for your own personal, non-commercial use, provided you agree to be bound by our end user license agreement for such applications.

You must not:

- Modify copies of any materials from this site.
- Use any illustrations, photographs, video or audio sequences or any graphics separately from the accompanying text.
- Delete or alter any copyright, trademark, or other proprietary rights notices from copies of materials from this site.

If you print, copy, modify, download, or otherwise use or provide any other person with access to any part of the Services in breach of the Terms of Use, your right to use the Services will cease immediately and you must, at our option, return or destroy any copies of the materials you have made. No right, title, or interest in or to the Services transferred to you excluding your User Contributions, and all rights not expressly granted are reserved by The Dot. Any use of the Services not expressly permitted by the Terms of Use is a breach of the Terms of Use and may violate copyright, trademark, and other laws.

4. User Contributions

General. Our Services allow Users to post, publish, submit, upload, share, or otherwise make available on certain parts of our Services (such as message boards, chat rooms, personal web pages or profiles, Social Hub, forums, bulletin boards, review boards, and other interactive features) content, such as profile pictures, data, photos, images, music, videos, comments, questions, messages, works of authorship and other content or information (all of which we refer to as “User Contributions”). You own your User Contributions. All User Contributions must comply with the Content Standards set out in Section 6.

License for Company Use. Any User Contribution you post to the site will be considered non-confidential and non-proprietary. By providing any User Contribution on the Website, you grant us and our affiliates and service providers, and each of their and our respective licensees, successors and assigns the right to use, reproduce, modify, perform, display, distribute and otherwise disclose to third parties any such material for any purpose. You represent and warrant that:

- You own or control all rights in and to the User Contributions and have the right to grant the license granted above to us and our affiliates and service providers, and each of their and our respective licensees, successors, and assigns.
- All of your User Contributions do and will comply with the Terms of Use.

You understand and acknowledge that you are responsible for any User Contributions you submit or contribute, and you have full responsibility for such content, including its legality, reliability, accuracy, and appropriateness.

Reliance on Information Posted. The User Contributions presented on or through the Services is made available solely for general information purposes. We do not warrant the accuracy, completeness, or usefulness of User Contributions. Any reliance you place on such information is strictly at your own risk. We disclaim all liability and responsibility arising from any reliance placed on User Contributions by you or any other visitor to the Services, or by anyone who may be informed of any of its contents.

The Services include content provided by third parties, including materials provided by other Users, third-party licensors, syndicators, aggregators, and/or reporting services. All statements and/or opinions expressed in User Contributions, and all articles and responses to questions and other content, other than the content provided by The Dot, are solely the opinions and the responsibility of the person or entity providing those materials. These materials do not reflect the opinion of The Dot. We are not responsible or liable to you, or to any third party, for the content or accuracy of any User Contributions provided by any User or third party.

5. Third-Party Links

If the Services contain links to other sites and resources provided by third parties or other Users, these links are provided for your convenience only. This includes links contained in advertisements, including banner advertisements and sponsored links. We have no control over the contents of those sites or resources and accept no responsibility for them or for any loss or damage that may arise from your use of them. If you decide to access any of the third-party websites linked to the Services, you do so entirely at your own risk and subject to the terms and conditions of use for such websites.

6. Content Standards

These content standards apply to any and all User Contributions and use of the Services. User Contributions must in their entirety comply with all applicable federal, state, local, and international laws and regulations. Without limiting the foregoing, User Contributions must not:

- Contain any material which is defamatory, obscene, indecent, abusive, offensive, harassing, violent, hateful, inflammatory, or otherwise objectionable.
- Contain any information or content that you do not have a right to make available under any law or under contractual or fiduciary relationships.
- Promote sexually explicit or pornographic material, violence, or discrimination based on race, sex, religion, nationality, disability, sexual orientation, or age.
- Infringe any patent, trademark, trade secret, copyright or other intellectual property or other rights of any other person.
- Violate the legal rights (including the rights of publicity and privacy) of others or contain any material that could give rise to any civil or criminal liability under applicable laws or regulations or that otherwise may be in conflict with the Terms of Use and our Privacy Policy.
- Be likely to deceive any person.
- Promote any illegal activity, or advocate, promote, or assist any unlawful act.
- Create a risk of harm, loss, physical or mental injury, emotional distress, death, disability, disfigurement, or physical or mental illness to you, to any other person, or to any animal; create a risk of any other loss or damage to any person or property.
- Seek to harm or exploit children by exposing them to inappropriate content, asking for personally identifiable details or otherwise.
- Constitute or contribute to a crime or tort.
- Cause annoyance, inconvenience, or needless anxiety or be likely to upset, embarrass, alarm, or annoy any other person.
- Impersonate any person or misrepresent your identity or affiliation with any person or organization.
- Involve commercial activities or sales, such as contests, sweepstakes, and other sales promotions, barter, or advertising.
- Give the impression that they emanate from or are endorsed by us or any other person or entity, if this is not the case.

You agree that any User Contributions you provide does not and will not violate third-party rights of any kind, including without limitation any intellectual property rights or rights of privacy or publicity. The Dot reserves the right, but is not obligated, to reject and/or remove any User Contributions that The Dot believes, in its sole discretion, violates these provisions. You understand that publishing your User Contributions on or via the Services is not a substitute for registering it with the U.S. Copyright Office or any other rights organization.

7. Content Moderation and Enforcement

Moderation. We do not undertake to review any material before it is posted on the Services and cannot ensure prompt removal of objectionable material after it has been posted. Accordingly, we assume no liability for any action or inaction regarding transmissions, communications, or content provided by any User or third party. We have no liability or responsibility to anyone for performance or nonperformance of the activities described in this section.

Enforcement. The Dot reserves the right to:

- Remove or refuse to post any User Contributions for any or no reason in our sole discretion.
- Take any action with respect to any User Contribution that we deem necessary or appropriate in our sole discretion, including if we believe that such User Contribution violates the Terms of Use, Content Standards, infringes any intellectual property right or other right of any person or entity, threatens the personal safety of users of the Services or the public, or could create liability for The Dot.
- Disclose your identity or other information about you to any third party who claims that material posted by you violates their rights, including their intellectual property rights or their right to privacy.
- Take appropriate legal action, including without limitation, referral to law enforcement, for any illegal or unauthorized use of the Services.
- Terminate or suspend your access to all or part of the Services for any or no reason.

Investigations. Without limiting the foregoing, we have the right to fully cooperate with any law enforcement authorities or court order requesting or directing us to disclose the identity or other information of anyone posting any materials on or through the Services. YOU WAIVE AND HOLD HARMLESS THE DOT AND ITS AFFILIATES, LICENSEES, AND SERVICE PROVIDERS FROM ANY CLAIMS RESULTING FROM ANY ACTION TAKEN BY ANY OF THE FOREGOING PARTIES DURING OR AS A RESULT OF ITS INVESTIGATIONS AND FROM ANY ACTIONS TAKEN AS A CONSEQUENCE OF INVESTIGATIONS BY EITHER SUCH PARTIES OR LAW ENFORCEMENT AUTHORITIES.

8. Copyright Infringement

Notice and Take Down Procedures. If you believe that any User Contributions violate your copyright, please notify us of your copyright infringement claim at our contact information below. The Dot reserves the right to terminate the Account of repeat infringers.

Digital Millennium Copyright Act. The Dot will process notices of alleged infringement that it receives and will take appropriate action as required by the Digital Millennium Copyright Act (“DMCA”). The DMCA requires that notifications of claimed copyright infringement should be sent to the following email address: thedottwincities@gmail.com. To be effective, the notification must be in writing and contain the following information (DMCA, 17 U.S.C. § 512(c)(3)):

- Physical or electronic signature of a person authorized to act on behalf of the owner of an exclusive right that is allegedly infringed;
- Identification of the copyrighted work claimed to have been infringed, or, if multiple copyrighted works at a single online site are covered by a single notification, a representative list of such works at that site;
- Identification of the material that is claimed to be infringing or to be the subject of infringing activity and that is to be removed or access to which is to be disabled, and information reasonably sufficient to permit the service provider to locate the material;
- Information reasonably sufficient to permit the service provider to contact the complaining party, such as an address, telephone number, and, if available, an electronic mail address at which the complaining party may be contacted;
- A statement that the complaining party has a good faith belief that use of the material in the manner complained of is not authorized by the copyright owner, its agent, or the law; and
- A statement that the information in the notification is accurate, and under penalty of perjury, that the complaining party is authorized to act on behalf of the owner of an exclusive right that is allegedly infringed.

9. Term and Termination

You can terminate your Account whenever you choose. The Dot may terminate your Account at any time for any reason.

Term. These Terms apply beginning on the date you first used The Dot’s Services or the date you accepted these Terms, whichever came first, and will continue to apply until terminated.

Termination of Services by The Dot. We may terminate this Agreement or your ability to access or use any or all of our Services at any time for any reason, including if payment cannot be charged to your Payment Information for any reason, if you have violated these Terms, or if we are legally required to do so.

Termination by You. If you want to terminate this Agreement, you can do so by notifying us at thedottwincities@gmail.com.

Survival. All provisions of this Agreement that need to continue will continue following termination of this Agreement, including ownership provisions, warranty disclaimers, arbitration and governing law, and limitations of liability.

10. Indemnity

You are responsible for all your activities while using our Services, including what you input, copy, share, upload, download, attach, send, receive, and record and any harmful or unlawful content or conduct. You will also be liable for any related costs, damages, or other effects.

You agree to defend, indemnify, and hold us, our subsidiaries, and other affiliated companies, and our respective subsidiaries, employees, contractors, agents, officers, and directors harmless from and against any and all claims, damages, obligations, losses, liabilities, costs, and expenses (including reasonable attorney's fees) arising from: (a) your use of and access to our Services; (b) your violation of this Agreement or our Content Standards; (c) any damage or violation of any third-party right, including rights of publicity, privacy, or intellectual property right caused by you or your User Contributions; (d) your violation of any applicable law, rule, or regulation; or (e) your use of or access to any Third-Party Links or your dealings with such third parties.

11. No Warranty

Our Services (including Beta Services) are provided to you on an "as is" and "as available" basis, and they may be interrupted or unavailable at times.

You expressly understand and agree that to the extent permitted by law, your use of our Services is at your sole risk. To the maximum extent permitted by law, we expressly disclaim all warranties of any kind, whether express or implied, including implied warranties of merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose, or non-infringement. No advice or information, whether oral or written, obtained by you from us or through our Services will create any warranty not expressly stated in these Terms of Use.

Without limiting the foregoing, we (including our subsidiaries and licensors) do not warrant that any of our Services or User Contributions is accurate, reliable, or correct; that our Services will meet your requirements or will be available at any particular time or location, uninterrupted or secure; that any defects or errors will be corrected; or that our Services are free of viruses or other harmful components. Any content you obtain through our Services is at your own risk.

We will not be liable for any loss or damage caused by a distributed denial-of-service attack, viruses, or other technologically harmful material that may infect your computer equipment, computer programs, data, or other proprietary material due to your use of the Services or to your downloading of any material posted on it, or on any website linked to it.

12. Limitation on Time to File Claims

Any cause of action or claim you may have arising out of or relating to the Terms of Use or the Services must be commenced within one (1) year after the cause of action accrues; otherwise, such cause of action or claim is permanently barred.

13. Limitation on Liability

We are responsible only to the limited extent specifically stated in these Terms of Use for any damages that occur from your use of the Services.

Exclusion of Liability. In no event shall The Dot (including its affiliates, agents, directors, employees, suppliers, or licensors) be liable for any indirect, punitive, incidental, special, consequential, or exemplary damages you might experience from The Dot's Services, including damages for loss of profits, lost business opportunities, reputation, loss of data, or any theory of liability.

Basis of the Bargain. The limitations of damages set forth above are fundamental elements of the basis of the bargain between you and The Dot. This limitation of liability section applies whether the alleged liability is based on contract, tort, negligence, strict liability, or any other basis, even if The Dot has been advised of the possibility of such damage. The foregoing limitation of liability will apply to the fullest extent permitted by law in the applicable jurisdiction.

14. Arbitration Agreement

Please read the following arbitration agreement ("Arbitration Agreement") carefully. This section provides that you and The Dot agree to resolve all disputes between us through binding arbitration and includes a class action and jury waiver. This agreement supersedes all prior versions.

You agree that any dispute, claim, or request for relief relating in any way to your access or use of our Services, to any products sold or distributed through our Services, or to any aspect of your relationship with us, will be resolved by final and binding arbitration, rather than in court, except that you and The Dot can seek equitable relief in court for infringement or other misuse of intellectual property rights (such as trademarks, trade secrets, copyrights, and patents), any illegal or intentional act affecting the accessibility, functionality, or the security of our Services, and/or any illegal or intentional act against your interests or The Dot's general business interests. This Arbitration Agreement applies, without limitation, to all disputes or claims and requests for relief that originated before the effective date of this Agreement or any prior version of this Agreement. You agree to this Arbitration Agreement as a condition of your use (or continued use) of our Services every time it is changed or updated. This arbitration provision shall survive the termination of these Terms of Use.

The Federal Arbitration Act (9 U.S.C. § 1 et seq.) ("FAA"), including its procedural provisions, in all respects, applies to the interpretation and enforcement of this Arbitration Agreement. The arbitration shall be conducted by a single Arbitrator. The Arbitrator shall be selected by mutual agreement of the parties, however, if the Parties cannot agree the selection will be made according to the Arbitration Rules in effect when the claim is filed. As a prerequisite to being selected, an Arbitrator must be a neutral attorney or a neutral retired judge of the state or federal judiciary, in either case with a minimum of ten (10) years of experience in the substantive law applicable to the subject matter of the dispute to be arbitrated. The arbitrator's award shall be final, and judgment may be entered upon it in any court having jurisdiction. The entire dispute, including the scope and enforceability of this arbitration provision shall be determined by the Arbitrator. This arbitration provision shall survive the termination of these Terms of Use.

Each party will be responsible for paying any filing, administrative and arbitrator fees in accordance with the arbitration rules. The award rendered by the arbitrator shall include costs of arbitration, reasonable attorney's fees and reasonable costs for expert and other witnesses, and any judgment on the award rendered by the arbitrator may be entered in any court of competent jurisdiction.

Waiver of Jury Trial. You and The Dot both waive any constitutional and statutory rights to sue in court and have a trial in front of a judge or a jury, with the exceptions stated in this Arbitration Agreement. If for any reason a dispute proceeds in court rather than in arbitration, you and The Dot each waive any right to a jury trial. An arbitrator can award the same damages and relief as a court and must follow our Arbitration Agreement as a court would.

Waiver of Class or Other Non-Individualized Relief. All disputes, claims, and requests for relief within the scope of this Arbitration Agreement must be arbitrated on an individual basis and not on a class or collective basis. Only individual relief is available. Claims of more than one User cannot be arbitrated or consolidated with those of another User. If the arbitrator issues a decision that enforcement of these provisions is not applicable to a specific dispute, claim or request for relief, then only those specific issues will be removed and brought into the state or federal courts of the State of Minnesota.

15. General

This section provides important legal information which you should review, including your agreement to receive electronic communications from us.

Changes to the Terms of Use. We may revise and update the Terms of Use from time to time in our sole discretion. All changes are effective immediately when we post them and apply to all access to and use of the Services thereafter. Your continued use of the Services following the posting of revised Terms of Use means that you accept and agree to the changes. You are expected to check this page frequently, so you are aware of any changes, as they are binding on you.

Information About You and Your Visits to the Services. All information we collect via the Services are subject to our Privacy Policy. By using the Services, you consent to all actions taken by us with respect to your information in compliance with the Privacy Policy.

Geographic Restrictions. The Services are controlled and operated from the State of Minnesota in the United States. We provide the Services for use by persons located in the United States only. We make no claims that the Services or any of its content is accessible or appropriate outside of the United States. Access to the Services may not be legal by certain persons or in certain countries. If you access the Services from outside the United States, you do so on your own initiative and are responsible for compliance with applicable laws.

Assignment. You may not transfer or assign this Agreement, including any rights or licenses granted to you by these Terms. We may assign or transfer this Agreement without restriction.

Electronic Communications. By using our Services, you agree to receive communications from us or our affiliated companies, including via electronic means. Texts, calls, or other messages may be generated by automatic telephone dialing systems. Standard text messaging charges applied by your cell phone carrier will apply to text messages that we send. You consent to receive communications from The Dot in an electronic form, and you agree that all terms and conditions, agreements, notices, disclosures, and other communications, such as messages delivered through in-app modals that The Dot provides to you electronically satisfy any legal requirement that we are communicating to you in writing. The foregoing does not affect your statutory rights. If you wish to opt out of promotional emails, you can unsubscribe from our promotional email list by following the Unsubscribe options in the promotional email.

Waiver and Severability. No waiver by The Dot of any term or condition set forth in the Terms of Use shall be deemed a further or continuing waiver of such term or condition or a waiver of any other term or condition, and any failure of The Dot to assert a right or provision under the Terms of Use shall not constitute a waiver of such right or provision. If any provision of the Terms of Use is held by a court or other tribunal of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, illegal, or unenforceable for any reason, such provision shall be eliminated or limited to the minimum extent such that the remaining provisions of the Terms of Use will continue in full force and effect.

Entire Agreement. The Terms of Use and our Privacy Policy constitute the sole and entire agreement between you and The Dot Twin Cities. with respect to the Services and supersede all prior and contemporaneous understandings, agreements, representations, and warranties, both written and oral, with respect to the Services.

Governing Law and Venue. These Terms and any related action will be governed and interpreted by and under the laws of the State of Minnesota, consistent with the FAA, other than conflict of laws principles. To the extent you and The Dot are permitted to initiate litigation in a court, you and The Dot both agree that all claims and disputes between you and The Dot will be litigated exclusively in the state or federal courts located in Hennepin County, Minnesota.

16. Your Comments and Concerns

This website is operated by The Dot Twin Cities, a Minnesota Non-Profit Corporation, located at 10 S. Fifth Street, Suite 800, Minneapolis, MN 55402.
