MASTER IRIDOLOGIST DIPLOMA

The Master Iridologist diploma course consists of both online study and in-person immersion trainings.

- Master Iridologist online courses
  - Healing Diets
  - Iridology
- Immersion Training
  - Naturopathy & Iridology
- Self Healing Module

Iridology is a form of analysis that examines the iris structure, iris markings and colours, and what is known as 'iris constitutional type,' to determine ageing pathways in the body.

Iridology does not diagnose disease, in the contemporary medical sense. What it does do is more meaningful as it shows you how to not become ill in the first place, how you are likely to develop disease if your lifestyle, diet and other influences play into your inherent weaknesses and, if you are ill, shows where to focus treatment to best support your own body's capacity to heal.

Through studying the iris, an Iridologist determines the inherent strength of each body system, current level of toxicity and stress in body tissues and, combined with a thorough understanding of holistic anatomy and physiology, and a detailed case history, identifies the system, organ and gland weakness pattern that manifests as your individual pathway to disease.

This information is used to guide preventative and self healing programs that incorporate education, purification and regeneration and preventative care.

Iridology also provides a uniquely effective way to explore the interior world of body, mind and emotions, along with their dynamic relationships; relationships that are at the core of psychoneuroimmunology. Traditional medicine has long recognised the relationship between emotional and mental states, and physical health and wellbeing. The modern medical model is also beginning to acknowledge mind-body dynamics, prompted by science such as Candace Pert, who discovered the link between emotions and cellular/molecular function.

Course Curriculum

Iridology can identify emotional and mental tendencies and their physical manifestations as a cohesive whole, so practitioners of holistic medicine are increasingly drawn to this valuable tool for investigating the continuum of client health on all levels.

School of Natural Medicine UK offers one of the most comprehensive Iridology courses in the world. Written by Farida Sharan ND, a leading pioneer of Iridology and author of the classic textbook 'Iridology - A Complete Guide,' 'Dictionary of Iridology,' and 'Iridology Coloring Book,' This course will provide you with the knowledge needed to create effective holistic health programs.

Studies are personally mentored by school founder, Bonny Casel, and she guides students as they develop consultation skills and lay the foundation for practice.

Bonny Casel ND MAMH studied herbal medicine with Dr. John Christopher, Iridology and Nutrition with Dr. Bernard Jensen, Herbal Medicine, Naturopathy, and Iridology with Farida Sharan, Iridology with Dorothy Hall, Rayid with Denny Johnson, epigenetics with Bruce Lipton and Quantum Physics with Nassim Haramein.

If you wish to add Iridology to your current practice, establish a nutritional iridologist practice, heal yourself, family and/or friends, or integrate iridology with other modalities in a clinical setting, this course will remain a wealth of knowledge, wisdom and inspiration for years to come.

ONLINE STUDY

The two online courses offer a deep study of healing diets and iridology, with creative, experiential and research based assignments that help students to integrate this knowledge for effective practice and personal self healing.

FAQ

ARE THE DIPLOMA COURSES ACCREDITED INTERNATIONALLY?

Each country has its own requirements and there is no accreditation available that is 'international.'

Most countries do not regulate the practice of iridology and you can freely practice without requiring board examinations or professional memberships (although joining professional bodies is highly encouraged). Iridology neither diagnoses or treats disease, so is not in conflict with regulations that regulate the practice of medicine.

Some countries do require an examination in their own language, for example in Germany there is an examination required for all practitioners who make health recommendations, regardless of your qualifications.

Each graduate must educate themselves about the requirements in their own country and abide by them. School of Natural Medicine graduates practice all over the world and we have never had a graduate who has been unable to practice and/or teach in their home country.

WILL I BE ABLE TO OBTAIN PRACTICE INSURANCE UPON GRADUATION?

School of Natural Medicine UK graduates can obtain block insurance from Balens or Westminster insurance company in the UK, or with an insurance company in your own country. Professional memberships also frequently offer reduced fee insurance options.
