Welcome to Senior Year Magazine's The Best Of 2020, highlighting the work of some of the BEST High School Senior Photographers world wide.

We received an overwhelming 6,010 total entries. The images were again nothing short of amazing. Talented photographers from all over the world submitted their best images and we are extremely proud to feature The Best of 2020, here at Senior Year Magazine.

We have created three volumes of this Edition. Volume one features studios A-D. Volume two features studios E-L and Volume three features studios M-Z. Congratulations to each of the photographers and models who made the Best Of 2020 Magazine.

A close-up portrait of a young woman with long, wavy blonde hair and blue eyes. She is wearing a light-colored straw cowboy hat with a decorative band featuring yellow beads and dark triangular ornaments. She is also wearing a white lace long-sleeved top. Her right hand is raised, touching the brim of her hat. The background is a soft-focus green and blue, suggesting an outdoor setting.

A full-body photograph of a woman sitting on a wet beach at sunset. She is wearing a sleeveless, knee-length dress with a purple and pink floral pattern. She is looking off to the side, away from the camera. The ocean waves are breaking behind her, and the sky is filled with soft, colorful clouds in shades of orange, pink, and blue. Her reflection is clearly visible in the wet sand in front of her.

Alexis Weathers

Class of 2021

My whole world changed dramatically when I was diagnosed with brain cancer in 2016, during my freshman year of Highschool. We were faced with the difficult decision to either have surgery to remove the tumor, or not – which meant I would die within 6 months. Either option presented a huge risk. Totally not the kind of decisions most high schoolers have to face. We decided on the surgery, which required that I had multiple surgeries, along with chemotherapy and radiation.

Why am I telling you this? Well, even though this experience has left me legally blind and hearing impaired, I'm still here!! I've decided not to let this define me. I am still me, the loving, feisty, compassionate, and driven me! I am here, I am a survivor, and I am determined to keep going no matter the challenge!

So here I am, a senior in high school; blind, and hearing impaired and navigating through a completely virtual school experience which is for students who can see. Although a simple task for others, for me it's a constant reminder of the impairments I now face because of cancer.

Through my journey prior to 2020 I have had to learn to solely rely on my faith and count on God to renew my strength daily. So, here I am again, in a position of many uncertainties! I'm relying on what and who I know is going to see me through.

The word I use to describe my 2020 is SURRENDER. I fully commit and surrender to God's will and plan for my life even when I don't like, or may not understand the hows or whys.

I am looking forward to graduating in 2021, and developing a website and blog to encourage, motivate and inspire others who are going through life's challenges and adversities. To all my 2021 seniors, even though life may throw curve balls your way, know that you will get through it, and become a stronger, and more resilient version of yourself!
