

Grow With Confidence: An 8-Part Veggie Garden Series

Stone Bank Farm Market has teamed up with Vera Reinke from Heirloom Kitchen Gardens for a new 8-part series on organic vegetable gardening from seed to harvest!

Each month covers exactly what your garden needs, so you feel confident, less overwhelmed, and able to truly enjoy your garden.

Workshops are held at Stone Bank Farm Market, N68W33208 County Rd K
Every 2nd Friday from March - October 10:00-11:30 AM

Individual Series Workshops are $40 or Buy All 8 for $280!

Attend all 8 or drop in when you can—each workshop stands on its own!

March 13th – Cool & Warm Season Garden Planning

Plan your garden for spring-fall harvests and maximize space.

April 10th – Easy Seed Starting & Cool Crops

Seed-starting demo + planting hardy cool-season crops.

May 8th – Warm Season Success: Your Garden's Biggest Growth Month

What to plant, where to plant it, and how to set up a productive summer garden.

June 12th – Early Summer: Low-Stress Garden Maintenance

Simple watering, weeding, and succession planting for steady harvests.

July 10th – Peak Summer Harvesting for Maximum Production

Harvest for more production, manage pests, start fall crops, and store produce.

August 14th – Summer Abundance & Easy Preservation

Easy preservation methods and fall planting strategies.

September 11th – Fall Gardening & Extending the Season

Grow fall crops, extend the season, and plant garlic for next year.

October 9th – Minimalist Fall Cleanup

Clean up only what matters and prep your soil for winter.

For more details on the workshops, visit www.stonebankmarket.com

With each workshop, you'll receive:

- 1 hour of discussion/presentation
- Handouts on the topic
- Demonstrations as able
- Monthly tasks/lists
- 30 minutes of Q&A
- Follow-up email with links, info, and more!

Register Here!

HEIRLOOM
KITCHEN
GARDENS

Vera Reinke, Garden Designer & Educator

I offer custom kitchen garden design, one-on-one consulting & coaching, and seasonal garden plans to help you grow more food with confidence.

www.HeirloomKitchenGardens.com

SATURDAY GARDENING WORKSHOPS

Kick off the gardening season with 3 special request workshops designed to inspire, equip, and connect you with fellow gardeners!

Led by Vera from Heirloom Kitchen Gardens, you'll dive into your garden goals, make a plan to turn your goals into an abundant garden, stock up on seeds at our seed swap & sale, and learn how to compost with practical ways to turn kitchen scraps into garden gold—so you can grow with confidence and joy all season long.

All Workshops are $40

Workshops are held at Stone Bank Farm Market, N68W33208 County Rd K

Dreaming of Spring Garden Visioning Workshop

Saturday, February 28th, 10 am – 1130 am

A guided workshop to help you clarify your garden goals, explore layout ideas, and create a simple, stress-free plan for the growing season.

Register Here!

Seed Swap & Sale and Seasonal Growing

Saturday, March 14th, 10 am – 1130 am

Community Seed Swap! Swap or collect seeds, learn seed basics, and start the season with confidence.

Stone Bank will also have High Mowing Seeds available to purchase!

Composting 101

Saturday, May 16th, 10 am – 1130 am

A beginner-friendly composting workshop covering what to compost, simple systems, and how to avoid common mistakes.

For more details on the workshops, visit www.stonebankmarket.com

With each workshop, you'll receive:

- 1 hour of discussion/presentation
- Handouts on the topic
- Demonstrations as able
- Follow-up email with links, info, and more!
- Q&A

HEIRLOOM
KITCHEN
GARDENS

Vera Reinke, Garden Designer & Educator

I offer custom kitchen garden design, one-on-one consulting & coaching, and seasonal garden plans to help you grow more food with confidence.

www.HeirloomKitchenGardens.com

