PROFILE

Gloria is the second oldest of seven children. Gloria's mother and father are not together, and her father has not been reliable in supporting Gloria and her siblings. Since there is a lack of support for the children it has come at the cost of her education being inconsistent at times. Gloria is supposed to join High School, but both her father and mother are not able to pay her school tuition. While Gloria is waiting to return to school, she is spending her time helping in children at her home church by teaching those that cannot go to school like her. Gloria's goal is to become a teacher making her education extremely important to finish.
