

GoodLife Agency

Request for Proposals (RFP) for System Development Services

March 23, 2022

Notice is hereby given that the GoodLife Agency is requesting competitive proposals until April 6, at 5:00 P.M. EST, for the following Professional Services:

Data System Development Services for the Teacher and School Leader (TSL) Grant. Proposals from firms and individuals will be considered.

Overview

The GoodLife Agency's leadership team is responsible for long-range planning for the educational delivery, support, and training for instructional and non-instructional staff of the participating districts in the grant, as well as the day-to-day administration of various state and federally funded educational programs geared towards the performance improvement, including but not limited to the administration, of these programs.

Purpose:

The purpose of the TSL grant is to assist States, local educational agencies (LEAs), and nonprofit organizations to develop, implement, improve, or expand comprehensive Performance-Based Compensation Systems (PBCS) or Human Capital Management Systems (HCMS) for teachers, principals, and other School Leaders (educators) (especially for educators in High-Need Schools who raise student growth and academic achievement and close the achievement gap between high-and low-performing students). In addition, a portion of TSL funds may be used to study the effectiveness, fairness, quality, consistency, and reliability of PBCS or HCMS for educators.

Scope of Work

Data System Development Service providers will work closely with the GoodLife Agency administration, who is the project lead for the consortium of schools in the project plan. The GoodLife Agency is seeking Data System Development Service from firms or individuals with a proven track record in the following areas and previous experience should include:

- Work in the K-12 educational arena with charter and public school districts across the nation.
- Previous personal and/or professional experience working with high-need, low-income communities or public education communities that serve comprehensive public and charter schools.
