

THE New TRADITIONAL

KITCHEN

The heart of the home is still a place to show your classic side.

In Contrast Paint the island a bold color and it takes on its own personality, much like a piece of furniture.

TRUE BLUES

"While wanting it to be fresh and current, it had to be timeless," designer CAMERON DRINKWATER says about her client's light and bright kitchen.

"Every surface was intentionally considered and addressed so that it felt layered." Drinkwater paired polished nickel hardware with pieces from the homeowner's collection of blue-and-white porcelain, then tied it all together with a subtly hued runner from Abrash.

DMAGAZINE.COM