PROFILE

Priscilla is not in school, she has yet to start school; her father abandoned her together with her mother, Theonille, and went off to start another family. Priscilla longs to be in class like most of her age-mates, but her mother who has to do odd jobs to sustain life, has little to zero left to start her daughter in school. Priscilla approached our staff after learning from another single parent whose daughter we support in school, hoping to get support for school.
