To whom it may concern:

It is my privilege to recommend Katie Dilse for your next conference or event- you will love her!

I met Katie this past year leading up to her presentation at the Bismarck Cancer Center Oncology Conference. Katie was an absolute delight to work with. She was organized, professional and kind. I was immediately impressed by her passion and contagious energy.

It was evident to me from the beginning that Katie was deeply invested in her time at our conference. For example, she inquired, researched and gained insight about her target audience. This was apparent through her sensationally tailored presentation for healthcare providers. Her presentation had great relevance to our profession, was light-heart, funny and truly impactful.

Katie is real, personably and spoke to the heart of everyone in audience. She reminded us of our purpose and why we went into healthcare- she reignited our fire.

I have met very few people like Katie. She has an incredibly gift, is driven and knows what she wants out of her life, and that is to inspire others. Katie wants to make a positive difference in the lives of those are around her and the individuals in her audience. She believes in doing the small things that make a big difference. Katie will always give you 100%.

I believe Katie is someone you should strongly consider for your next conference or event. You would be lucky to have her as part of your program.

Thank you,

Tara Schilke
