INTRO

WELCOME, BEAUTIFUL SOUL.

We're here because you want to craft a business that honours your sacred work.

Thank you for your enquiry, and interest in working with Heal.Thy Money. Our favourite people aren't here to just 'make money' — they're here to deliver remembrance, and awakening. We work with the new earth mission leaders, paradigm shifters, mystics, and visionaries entrusted with a sacred body of work, and the courage to usher it forth.

About the Movement

Angela's a triple Scorpio, award-winning accountant, and a firm believer that business can be sacred.

After three decades in business, Angela watched the spiritual entrepreneur world start to follow the same old path. Same distortions. Same formulas. Same performative marketing. She knew she couldn't just keep playing the game — she had to challenge the system behind it.

Heal.Thy Money was rebuilt for the ones who walk in devotion with the divine. We help you uncover your singular essence, crafting a business that honours your sacred work.

KIND WORDS

“When your accountant is incredible at numbers, and is also an amazing spiritual mentor as well. So much gratitude for you Angela.”

— Melissa

Founder & CEO, The Centre for Healing

Best practice is to prepare a spreadsheet that includes a list all your income, invoices, and expenses for the year.

ANGELA MAREE

*Founder, accountant, wise

I'm a triple Scorpio, award-winning accountant, and a firm believer that business can be sacred.

I've built my business for the ones who walk in devotion with the divine. I help you uncover your singular essence, crafting a business that honours your sacred work.

All sacred work is an act of rebellion.

Every sacred business begins as a quiet refusal. A refusal to follow the script, to perform for broad appeal, to distort the sacred. At Heal.Thy Money, we believe your business should be formidable — the kind that turns heads, raises eyebrows, and maybe makes one person at the table say, “Wait... can we do that?” (Spoiler: Yes. You absolutely can.)

Because true sacred work doesn’t come from playing it safe. It comes from breaking the rules, the conditioning, the expectation. That’s not just business. That’s defiance. And that’s our catalyst.

In a world that rewards material success, choosing to craft something sacred is the most revolutionary move you can make.

Our work exists to support that choice — to make sure your singular essence has the roots, the fertile soil, and the devotion for it to bloom.

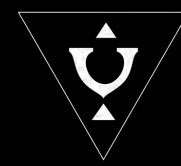

We’re here to help you build the kind of business that resists, resets, and redefines the system.

OUR WAY

We start with what matters. The intuitive spark of inspiration. Then we craft everything — strategy, offerings, profitability — to deliver that moment of resonance at scale, with soul. Everything we do serves a purpose: to metamorphose your singular essence, and answer the call of sacred duty.
