"Our friends at Pink Peony did a fantastic job with our wedding. Lindsay and Kimberly are seasoned pros who love their jobs. They made our wedding day seamless and allowed us to enjoy the day without having to put stress on us or our parents. Looking back, having their council, direction & expertise by our side had an intrinsic value you cannot put a dollar amount on. Coordinating with all the vendors (photographers, catering, DJ, equipment rental, venue, florists) took so much weight off our shoulders. As a financial advisor, I kept a close eye on all the costs and this was one I wouldn't hesitate saying is imperative. Wedding big or small Lindsay & Kimberly will make your day a dream come true. You won't go wrong and will thank yourself for using their services. A+, 10/10, home run.

These gals know what they're doing ;)." -Joe, Groom

"From our first meeting with Pink Peony, we knew immediately that we wanted to work with them. Both Lindsay and Kimberly shared experiences and ideas that were in line with our vision for a perfect wedding so it was an easy decision for us. Throughout the process, they made themselves available for questions and always responded quickly. As the wedding approached they helped outline the details of the day and pointed out items we had not even thought of. On the wedding day, we relied heavily on their expertise and calming personalities to make the day stress free. Lindsay and Sarah were there all day handling issues, setting up the room, making suggestions, keeping everyone on time and adjusting decorations. The day was everything we could have hoped for. We were able to fully enjoy every minute because we were so comfortable and confident that Pink Peony would handle anything that came up. If you are thinking about using a wedding planner, I strongly recommend working with Pink Peony. They are wonderful people!" -Peri, Mother of the Bride

"GO WITH PINK PEONY!!!! These two ladies (and their team) bust their butts to make sure it is the perfect day for you. They went way above and beyond for my husband and I, suggesting other things to add to our wedding, providing advice and being positive and supportive! They were truly the calm to my crazy. I am sad it's over and we don't have another wedding we can work on together. I'd hire them again in a second. Thanks PPWE!" -Meghan, Bride

"Hiring Pink Peony as day of coordinators was truly the BEST decision we made for our wedding day! Kimberly and Lindsay were AMAZING to work with. We could not have imagined our wedding day without all their help, from the set-up of multiple areas, their incredible attention to detail, the transition between spaces, managing timing day of, and making the end of night packing seamless. They went above and beyond leading up to our big day and were incredibly prompt when answering questions via email. They gave suggestions regarding vendors to work with, shared a ceremony outline, gave ideas on how and when to handle giving gifts to guests, and helped scope out a plan B in case of rain. We truly couldn't have done it without Pink Peony, thanks for helping to make our wedding day perfect!!" -Sara & Eric, Couple

Pink Peony was hands down the best money we spent on our wedding. Kimberly and Lindsay were so helpful throughout the entire process, offering suggestions on vendors and venues, answering all of our random questions, and coordinating everything on our actual wedding day. They ensured that everything went off without issues so we could enjoy our day and the time with our friends and family. I'm thrilled to be married but will miss Kimberly and Lindsay--I wish they could help plan the rest of my life too! -Lily & Kevin, Couple

"My husband and I live in California and we were not sure what we wanted to do for our wedding. After much back and forth we ended up deciding on a backyard Lake Minnetonka ceremony/ party at a rental home I found on VRBO. We hired Pink Peony to help us since we lived thousands of miles away and could use as much help as we could find. From sorting out last minute details and convincing their husbands to help with set up and driving guests to and from in a 4-wheeler all evening (thank you!), Lindsay and Kimberly went above and beyond to make sure everything was as flawless as possible for our big day. Hands down, our wedding would not have been a success had those two not been a part of it. If you're on the fence about hiring a planner/coordinator, just do it, it is 100% worth it especially if it's the Pink Peony ladies!!" -Abbie R., Bride
