hello there!

Thank you for considering the CLP Lifestyle/Branding Experience. In today's competitive market, having a collection of high-quality images is crucial in order to elevate your brand and set you apart from competitors.

These sessions offer a range of carefully planned images tailored for social media profiles, business marketing, websites, and more! Here's what to expect:

- A well-planned session from beginning to end.
- A digital style guide to assist in planning and preparing for your session.
- A 30-minute phone consultation to strategize and develop our session plan.
- Recommendations for trusted hair and makeup artists.
- Guided posing for natural looking photos.
- A 60-90 minute session at a personalized location in the East Valley.
- A positive impact on your brand when you utilize the images with your business marketing.

Rest assured, with over a decade of portrait photography experience and a satisfied client base, you can trust that you are in capable hands. Let's enhance your brand together! Thank you!

Kindly,

Christine

CLIENT TESTIMONIALS

LORANA ELLARD

"I just love Christine! She is professional, kind, and helped guide me every step of the way.....from clothing selection to location. She made me feel comfortable and confident and I couldn't be happier with her work! My Christine Lowell Photography pictures make social media posting and marketing much easier! They have definitely helped me elevate my brand!"

JULIA MACALUSO

"I have really enjoyed working with Christine Lowell Photography! Christine does a great job of suggesting clothing/accessory combinations and colors that are both flattering and in style. From finding the picture-perfect location, to helping with poses and posture, she makes sure you are comfortable and confident from start to finish!"

CYNDI GEORGE

"I have used Christine Lowell Photography for years. Her sense of detail from makeup to outfits to making sure the shot is framed perfectly made me feel like a supermodel. She has a way of putting you at ease with her beautiful personality and charm. And if something doesn't look right behind her digital lens - she is not afraid to say so and will suggest a different pose. The best part for me, is that people notice and my brand is getting attention. You need her in your corner and definitely you need her behind the lens!"

LEANNA DEBELLEVUE

"Working with Christine on branding photos has been an amazing experience. Our photos are STUNNING! Christine has an eye for lighting, style, and posing that have given us pictures unlike any in the past. Her branding photos have had an amazing impact on my business. How you present yourself online in photos can make all the difference when attracting your ideal client. For me, I have received numerous compliments on my photos and the level of professionalism they bring. If you are looking for a photographer who goes above and beyond to produce phenomenal photos look no further! I highly recommend Christine Lowell Photography."
