NIKA & CO
REAL ESTATE

Hi, we're Greatwater.

We're a small team with a lot of experience and talent at our disposal. We have architects, designers, builders, highly-organized and communicative individuals working together to make Detroit an amazing place to live. We care about the quality of our homes and continuing the charm and longevity of the existing neighborhood. We instill those principles into every decision we make.

We are also regular people and we love getting to know the individuals who make Detroit the great place that it is. Please feel free to stop by anytime, we'd love to meet you!
