

PARKING, LOCATION & ENTRANCE MAP

The Eisemann Center is located in Richardson, south of President George Bush Turnpike (SH 190) on the east side of Central Expressway. Directions:

If traveling north bound on Central Expressway, take Exit 27A, Renner Road/Galatyn Parkway. Turn right onto Galatyn Parkway, then left on Performance Drive.

The back stage door is on Performance Drive, see included map. All performers enter here, both for rehearsal and performance.

During rehearsal you will need to park in the garage attached to the north side of the Eisemann Center. Circle around the Center and the garage, and then enter from the west. This garage is also used for the Renaissance Hotel and Conference Center and cash is required.

For the performances, you will need to park in the Event Parking Area, which is also the Bank of America Garage. These garages are located just to the east of the Center, available weekends and after 5:00 pm on weekdays. The entrance to these garages is on the east side. All ticketed events with the exception of weekday matinees have Valet Parking available for a $10 fee with drop-off in front of the Eisemann Center.
