Meet Anna

Hey there! My name is Anna! I am a Pacific Northwest babe through and through - I was born and raised in the Seattle area, traveled lots and grew up camping and exploring the outdoors. I love exploring new coffee shops, long walks along the beach and rainy days! I like to think that I am a minimalist, but my kids would probably say otherwise. I have three girls, ages 5, 3 and 1.5yrs old who love exploring the outdoors, playing dress up and having tea parties!

I'm a natural light, lifestyle photographer who loves to capture true, authentic and aesthetically beautiful images for brands, that really help to tell their story.
