

Creative Production Partner for Corporate Internal Communications Teams

VISION STATEMENT

To strengthen how organizations communicate internally by delivering polished, brand-compliant design support that keeps teams aligned, informed, and moving forward.

Kirby Mack Creative partners with internal communications and cross-functional corporate teams to provide dependable production support for high-visibility deliverables, especially when timelines are tight, stakeholders are many, and consistency matters.

CORE COMPETENCIES

STRATEGIC CREATIVE DIRECTION

- Production partnership for corporate Internal Communications and Marketing Communications teams that need fast, brand-compliant execution.
- Visual communication support that improves clarity, engagement, and consistency across internal channels.
- Creative direction and alignment support to ensure deliverables follow existing brand standards and stakeholder expectations.

DESIGN & COMMUNICATION SERVICES

- Internal communications design for enterprise teams (employee updates, change communications, culture initiatives, and executive messaging).
- Presentation design and production (Town Halls, All-Hands, leadership updates, training decks, internal program rollouts).
- Document and one-pager layout (internal reports, program summaries, initiative briefs, executive-ready documents).
- Digital assets for internal channels (intranet banners, email headers, internal campaigns, and digital signage).

DIFFERENTIATORS

- Fractional Production Partnership Model: Reliable ongoing support that functions like an extension of your internal team, without adding headcount.
- Corporate-Ready Process: Built for stakeholder-heavy environments, brand compliance, and quick turnarounds.
- Consistency at Scale: Helps teams maintain a unified look and feel across departments, channels, and recurring deliverables.
- Executive-Ready Output: Polished visual hierarchy and presentation standards designed for leadership audiences.

PAST PERFORMANCE & REPRESENTATIVE WORK

- Enerflex, LTD: Created branded collateral for internal communications and product lines, strengthening visual consistency and alignment across corporate messaging.
- NexTier Completions Solutions: Provided creative production support for ads, external collateral and internal communications.
- Houston Housing Finance Corporation (HHFC): Developed a cohesive brand identity, responsive website, and coordinated collateral to modernize HHFC's image and enhance stakeholder engagement for Houston's leading affordable housing organization.
- Firefly Inclusion Solutions: Redesigned Firefly's digital presence with a custom website, brand-aligned collateral, and photoshoot direction; amplifying visibility and credibility for this global DEI consultancy.
- Women's Energy Network (WEN): Led creative direction for WEN's National Conference, crafting a bold event identity that energized attendees and spotlighted innovation across the energy industry.
- ADM Insights & Strategy: Refined ADM's brand and website to convey its human-centered research approach, reinforcing authority and trust among clients and partners.
