RESILIENCE IN LIFE.
SMARTER IN BUSINESS.

Jennifer Randall Young has lived through some of life's toughest storms—raising children while married to a narcissistic spouse, building a life with a brilliant but alcoholic second husband who passed away before she turned 50, and then rebuilding both her life and business after loss. She is the founder of Attract.Enroll., an AI-powered marketing agency for local businesses and a former dance studio owner of 15 years. Having launched over 3,000 ad campaigns and worked with 500+ studios, Jennifer empowers business owners to simplify, sustain, and grow with clarity. Her passion extends to advocacy: shining a light on the often-unspoken struggles of families living with alcoholism. She blends raw honesty, resilience, and practical insights to inspire audiences to rise stronger.
